These results indicate that the use of a noninvasive, portable, and easy-to-use device for measuring heart rate variability (HRV) is a promising approach to assess autonomic function in the field. The use of a portable device for measuring HRV may be particularly useful in the study of autonomic function in the elderly, as it allows for the measurement of HRV in a home setting, which may be more comfortable and convenient for the participant.

LaTeX is a typesetting system for documents. It is a TeX macro package developed by Leslie Lamport. It is used to create high-quality printed documents, including books, articles, and technical reports. LaTeX is particularly well-suited for scientific and technical documents, where it can handle complex mathematical formulas and tables. It is also used for creating presentations and web pages. LaTeX is a powerful tool for anyone who needs to create professional-looking documents.
