Marini, 2003 In Sacred Song in America Stephen A Marini explores the full range of American sacred music and demonstrates how an understanding of the meanings and functions of this musical expression can contribute to a greater understanding of religious culture Marini examines the role of sacred song across the United States from the musical traditions of Native Americans and the Hispanic peoples of the Southwest to the Sacred Harp singers of the rural South and the Jewish music revival to the music of the Mormon Catholic and Black churches Including chapters on New Age and Neo Pagan music gospel music and hymnals as well as interviews with iconic composers of religious music Sacred Song in America pursues a historical musicological and theoretical inquiry into the complex roles of ritual music in the public religious culture of contemporary America Decolonizing Contemporary Gospel Music Through Praxis Robert Beckford, 2023-08-24 Is contemporary Black British gospel music a coloniality What theological message is really conveyed in these songs In this book Robert Beckford shows how the Black British contemporary gospel music tradition is in crisis because its songs continue to be informed by colonial Christian ideas about God Beckford explores the failure of both African and African Caribbean heritage Churches to Decolonise their faith especially the doctrine of God biblical interpretation and Black ontology This predicament has left song leaders musicians and songwriters with a reservoir of ideas that aim to disavow engagement with the social historical world black Biblical interpretation and the necessity of loving blackness This book is decolonisation through praxis Reflecting on the conceptual social justice album The Jamaican Bible Remix 2017 as a communicative resource Beckford shows how to develop production tools to inscribe decolonial theological thought onto Black British music s The outcome of this process is the creation of a decolonial contemporary gospel music genre The impact of the album is demonstrated through case studies in national and international contexts New Music Review and Church Music Review, 1907 Music, Art and Emotion Conroy Cupido, 2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music By listening to five art songs by Schubert Strauss Faur and Berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs This was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs The artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the Aardklop National Arts Festival entitled Nagmusiek This was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text This book employs Artistic Research and Phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as I explored the artists creative processes experiences and the

tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts This book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song Their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music

Servanthood of Song is a history of American church music from the colonial era to the present Its focus is on the institutional and societal pressures that have shaped church song and have led us directly to where we are today The gulf which separates advocates of traditional and contemporary worship Black and White Protestant and Catholic is not new History repeatedly shows us that ministry to be effective must meet the needs of the entire worshiping community not just one segment age group or class Servanthood of Song provides a historical context for trends in contemporary worship in the United States and suggests that the current polemical divisions between advocates of contemporary and traditional classically oriented church music are both unnecessary and counterproductive It also draws from history to show that to be the powerful component of worship it can be music whatever the genre must be viewed as a ministry with training appropriate to that Servanthood of Song provides a critical resource for anyone considering a career in either musical or pastoral ministries in the American church as well as all who care passionately about vital and authentic worship for the church of today Church Music Review and Official Bulletin of the American Guild of Organists, 1923 Morning Star James Boeringer, 1986 Composer bilingual writer and evangelist Francis Florentine Hagen 1815 1907 was the last representative of the golden age of the musical composition of the Moravians James Boeringer brings together extracts from Hagen's diaries and translations along with numerous illustrations portraits music title pages manuscripts
