

A cinematic photograph of a train station at night. A man in a dark suit is walking away from the camera on a platform. To the left, several train tracks curve into the distance. The station is covered by a massive, arched glass and steel roof. Bright light streams through the large windows at the far end of the platform, creating a strong silhouette effect and illuminating the scene. A few other figures are visible in the background, and some train cars are parked on the tracks to the right.
