Sonic Encounters with Blanchot Adam Potts, 2020-06-05 Sonic Encounters with Blanchot is the first book to explore the relationship of sound and music with the work of Maurice Blanchot. The volume brings together scholars from a range of disciplines who listen closely to the sounds and resonances emanating from within Blanchot's work and who consider their significance both within his work and beyond. The latent and explicit sonic content of Blanchot's writing is explored as is his treatment of music and the possibilities of thinking about contemporary music and sound art through his work. Although Blanchot is best known for his engagement with literature, an engagement that often relies on visual references and experiences, this collection takes a sonic route into one of the most exciting and demanding thinkers of the twentieth century. As an interdisciplinary exploration of sound and Blanchot's work, this book will be of interest to those studying sound in literature and music as well as students of Blanchot's work in general. This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki.

The Reluctant Wolf and His Fated Mate Lisa Carlisle, 2020-09-20 Mates were trouble. That's why Damon would never commit to one. Sophie escapes to the White Mountains with her friend for a ski weekend. When she skis off trail and gets lost in the mountains, she stumbles into the path of a wolf. Only it's bigger than any she ever thought existed, and it's baring its fangs at her. Damon has refused to ever mate with another since his father went mad after losing his. When Damon meets a woman his wolf recognizes as the one the call is more difficult to ignore. And when he catches her scent on the mountain, he can't fight it any longer. He tracks her through the forest to ensure she's safe. Only Sophie has stepped into another pack's territory. If Damon crosses the boundary, he'll break a treaty. Mates, not just trouble. They could lead a shifter to spark pack war. Fated mates and forbidden love. Escape into the magic of the White Mountains with the Franconia shifters.

Match My Fall Lisa Carlisle, Fall into a wickedly charming romance when Salem witch Cassandra takes a wild ride with a wolf shifter. After I drop my daughter with my parents, I head to the White Mountains for some much-needed me time at a ski resort. Only my skis send me flying off my feet, and I end up tumbling downhill like a snowball. Ski patrol comes to my aid in the form of handsome wolf shifter Valen, and we have more chemistry than a combustible potion. Chairlift dating was a disaster, but a night with a rugged mountain man in his cozy slopeside cabin is tempting. Until Valen thinks I'm his fated mate.

Contemporary television fictions allow the audience to experience the reality of everyday life in audio visual spaces. Thus controversial issues discussed in German society such as homosexuality, racism or clashes of cultures are revisited in the social drama films produced for German television through a mixture of generic conventions such as tragedy, thriller and melodrama. Consequently the audio visual representations of the people who are the focus of these discussions represent an interesting area of research. The book deals with the audio visual spatiality of the Turkish diaspora in Berlin in three contemporary TV films in this format: namely Wut (Range) dir Zuli Alada 2006, Die Neue (The Newcomer) dir Buket Alaku 2015 and Nachspielzeit (Extra Time) dir Andreas Pieper 2015. Therewith it brings a spatial approach to the issue of polemical belonging of the Turkish Diaspora to the German national space within the audio visual context. The proposed spatial approach presents an alternative argument to the assumptions of German politicians who celebrate a common German history that bases on Christian Jewish identity, democracy and enlightenment.
