Ballistic Don Pendleton, 2013-01-01 Crisis erupts in the South China Sea when Triad pirates seize two of China's new DF 21 carrier killer missiles. In desperation, the Oval Office turns to Stony Man Farm for a rapid strategic response to halt the immediate threat to U.S. warships. Mack Bolan's mission in Jakarta becomes twofold: neutralize the pirate base and stop the sale of the missiles to the highest bidders. The threat escalates when the U.S. rejects the pirates' demands, and the Triad proves only too willing to give the U.S. a demonstration of the missiles' lethal power. As violence spreads throughout Indonesia, Bolan and a rescued Chinese spy push on through mounting assaults to the final showdown deep within the terrorists' jungle stronghold. But can they defeat a determined enemy that's got everything to lose? Driving the Dragon Mark

Andrews, 2025-04-15 China is now at the forefront of electric vehicle adoption, and a wave of Chinese manufactured cars is now hitting Europe and the West. As the world's largest car producer since 2008, China's automotive industry deserves a closer look. Driving the Dragon explores the history of Chinese car manufacture, looking at some of the important cars on that journey, the false starts and missed opportunities. The story begins with the Rover 75 and how it played a key role in moving the Chinese car industry forward. It concludes with a look at cars from the likes of BYD, Zeekr, and Nio, which are becoming mainstream in the UK and Europe as some of the most competitive electric vehicles on the market, not just in terms of price but also performance and desirability. For many people, China is still a very enigmatic country, not helped by recent political events. While the book focuses on the automotive industry, it also looks at the country itself and examines the culture surrounding the industry. The author spent 30 years in China teaching test driving and reviewing Chinese cars and writing while witnessing first-hand the extraordinary growth of the Chinese car industry. Into the Whirlwind Kat
