Using Sport To Teach Gcse Business Studies:

Understanding Physical Education Ken Green, 2008-01-24 This book will prove an invaluable resource for students wanting to engage with any or all of the issues covered and who need to get an authoritative quick fix on particular fields of research. It is thorough, contemporary in its choice of issues and comprehensive in its coverage of them. The author is to be congratulated on making a very thoughtful and important contribution to the literature in PE. Professor John Evans, Loughborough University, UK. This easy to use introduction explores all of the contemporary issues and enduring themes in physical education, focusing on the United Kingdom but incorporating a global dimension. The wide range of topics covered include: o the requirements of National Curriculum Physical Education o the current state of physical education o the relationship between physical education and sport o extra curricular physical education o lifelong participation in sport and physical activity o assessment and examinations in physical education o social class, gender, ethnicity and inclusion in relation to physical education o teacher training and continuing professional development. This book is an essential read for anyone embarking upon an undergraduate or postgraduate course in physical education.

The School Leader's Toolkit Mary Dawe, 2012-11-30 This is a practical, down to earth toolkit for a wide range of leadership areas and the authors helpfully include practical examples and reflective exercises. Any new leader will appreciate this book. Gillian Gee, GL Education. This engaging and very practical book shows how leadership and management should work to help meet the challenge of raising pupil achievement. Professor Peter Earley, Institute of Education. This accessible and jargon free book addresses key everyday topics faced by practising leaders. Providing hands on examples and advice, the book shows you how to handle difficult decisions, resolve conflict and prepare for Ofsted. Each chapter, written by a specialist in the area, contains bulleted chapter objectives, vignettes, thinking points, student quotes, case studies, figures and tables, ideas for best practice, further book and web reading. This guide caters for leaders at any level, especially those undertaking further professional development and practice based assessment. It will also be valuable to entry level Master's students and anyone on NPQH Leadership Pathways and national programmes for headteachers and academy principals. Until recently Mary Dawe was Head of Leadership Development at The London Centre for Leadership in Learning at The Institute of Education, University of London. She is now an independent consultant.
