The Best Value Colleges 2013 Robert Franek,Laura Braswell,Princeton Review,David Soto,2013-02-05 Looks at one hundred fifty colleges and universities across the country that provide superb academic studies top notch facilities and other excellent features for a lot less money than the other schools Another Throat Ryan Sharp,2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States,1928 Coming to Grips with Higher Education Michael T. Nietzel,2018-10-01 The American university faces many challenges It has become too costly and inefficient It fails too many students It spends too much time and money on matters that should not be its priorities It clings to policies and practices that need to go away And it is too disconnected from the students and communities it must serve This book proposes several changes to standard policies in our colleges and universities that will sharpen their missions redirect funding to the highest priorities improve student learning and attainment redefine faculty engagement slow down spending on amenities and reduce the excesses of intercollegiate athletics The recommended reforms remain true to the essential academic values embraced by the academy but at the same time they recognize and respond to the new realities facing higher education
