politics management police studies criminology and criminal justice Miscarriages of Justice Sam Poyser, Angus Nurse, Rebecca Milne, 2018-05-16 Miscarriages of justice occur far more frequently than we realise and have the power to ruin people's lives. It is crucial for criminal justice practitioners to understand them given significant developments in recent years in law and police codes of practice. This text part of the Key themes in policing textbook series is written by three highly experienced authors with expertise in the fields of criminal investigation, forensic psychology and law and provides an up to date and comprehensive analysis of miscarriages of justice. They highlight difficulties in defining miscarriages of justice, examine their dimensions, forms, scale and impact and explore key cases and their causes. Discussing informal and formal remedies against miscarriages of justice such as campaigns and the role of the media and the Court of Appeal and the Criminal Cases Review Commission (CCRC) they highlight criticism of the activities and decision making of the latter and examine changes to police investigation in this area. Designed to incorporate evidence based policing, each chapter provides questions reflecting on the issues raised in the text and suggestions for further reading. Entrepreneurship in Policing and Criminal Contexts Robert Smith, 2021-03-25 Entrepreneurship in Policing and Criminal Contexts explores the contemporary and under researched themes of entrepreneurial policing and entrepreneurialism in criminal justice contexts which are emerging topics of both theoretical and practical interest in the current rapidly changing criminal justice environment.

Southern and Postcolonial Perspectives on Policing, Security and Social Order Roxana Pessoa Cavalcanti, Peter Squires, Zoha Waseem, 2024-11-12 Postcolonial legacies continue to impact upon the Global South and this edited collection examines their influence on systems of policing, security management and social ordering. Expanding the Southern Criminology agenda the book critically examines social harms, violence and war crimes, human rights abuses, environmental degradation and the criminalization of protest. The book asks how current states of policing came about, their consequences and whose interests they continue to serve through vivid international case studies including prison struggles in Latin America and the misuse of military force. Challenging current criminological thinking on the Global South the book considers how police and state overreach can undermine security and perpetuate racism and social conflict. Police
