DENOMINATIONS: FROM GOD OR MAN? Volume Three John F. Lugger, 2025-03-06 Having faith in and believing in the validity of the Scriptures as absolute truth is becoming increasingly critical as we examine these more recent denominations Paul told Timothy All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching for reproof for correction for training in righteousness so that the man of God may be adequate equipped for every good work 2 Timothy 3 16 17 That was true in Paul s day and continues to be true today The importance of that belief is revealed in this book as it contains two groups in particular that have compromised on this passage the Presbyterian Church taking the position that Scripture has either no error or being written by men contains much error with numerous views in between all views being tolerated and accepted by their Constitution And the other group the Methodist Church who claim The Bible s true authority does not lie in its verbal inerrancy or even its factual accuracy it s power is not demonstrated in winning arguments but in transforming lives To properly understand Scripture Methodists insist one must filter God s Word through a lens of tradition reason and experience Why are the Scriptures God s Holy Word profitable for teaching for reproof for correction and training in righteousness not sufficient today Why are they being accused of lacking factual accuracy Why the need to filter them to be understood Seeking an answer to these is but one goal of this third volume Denominations From God or Man The Gospel magazine, and theological review. Mark and Paul Eve-Marie Becker, Troels Engberg-Pedersen, Mogens Mueller, 2014-05-08 This volume brings together an international group of scholars on Mark and Paul respectively who reopen the question whether Paul was a direct influence on Mark On the basis of the latest methods in

New Testament scholarship the battle over Yes and No to this question of literary and theological influence is waged within these pages In the end no agreement is reached but the basic issues stand out with much greater clarity than before How may one relate two rather different literary genres the apostolic letter and the narrative gospel How may the theologies of two such different types of writing be compared Are there sufficient indications that Paul lies directly behind Mark for us to conclude that through Paul himself and Mark the New Testament as a whole reflects specifically Pauline ideas What would the literary and theological consequences of either assuming or denying a direct influence be for our reconstruction of 1st century Christianity And what would the consequences be for either understanding Mark or Paul as literary authors and theologians How far should we give Paul an exalted a position in the literary creativity of the first Christians Addressing these questions are scholars who have already written seminal on the issue or have marked positions on it like Joel Marcus Margaret Mitchell Gerd Theissen and Oda Wischmeyer together with a group of up coming and senior Danish scholars from Aarhus and Copenhagen Universities who have collaborated on the issue for some years The present volume leads the discussion further that has been taken up in Paul and Mark ed by O Wischmeyer D Sim and I Elmer BZNW 191 2013 The Biblical World William Rainey Harper, Ernest DeWitt Burton, Shailer Mathews, 1901 Books for New Testament study By Clyde Weber Votaw v 26 p 271 320 v 37 p 289 352 The Rhetoric of Faith Scott D. Moringiello, 2019 The Rhetoric of Faith argues that the structure of Irenaeus s opus magnum the Adversus Haereses is the argument of the Adversus Haereses Through a close reading of the Irenaeus s text as well as through a comparison with Greco Roman rhetorical texts Scott Moringiello argues that Irenaeus structured his argument around the articles of the faith of the Church and that this structure builds on tropes found in the Greco Roman rhetorical tradition The argument focuses on the Adversus Haereses although it does begin with some discussion to put Irenaeus in the context of second century Christian literature Moringiello concludes with a discussion of Irenaeus s Demonstration of the Apostolic Preaching Other scholars have provided introductions to Irenaeus s work and other scholars have argued for the structural unity of the Adversus Haereses No other scholar though has argued that the faith of the Church is the basis of Irenaeus s argument This argument then presents an important contribution to the field of Irenaeus studies Bible Society Record , 1882 An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures ...
