institutional reform that will invigorate the capability of the political leadership to bring about rapid sustained and poverty reducing growth in South Asia The central task would be to re direct the focus of governments in South Asia in order to ensure that the core functions of the state stable non distortionary policy climate a secure foundation of law investment in basic education health and infrastructure protection of the vulnerable and adapting with the climate change are efficiently provided At the same time the reform agenda must be sensitive to the goal of ensuring that durable democratic institutions traditions and values are preserved This is a fundamental challenge but one that must be met in order to secure the emergence of a prosperous South Asia in the early part of the twenty first century This textbook will be useful for students and researchers in Development Economics Business Economics Development Studies and Asian Studies     Global

Vessel-Source Maritime Pollution Governance—Technical Innovation and Policy Orientation Lang Xu,Zheng Wan,Jihong Chen,2023-09-25 The maritime industry plays an important role in international trade activities and the global economy It is estimated that international shipping carries approximately 80% of global trade by volume and more than 70% by value However increasing maritime activities have had a negative impact on the marine environment and human health For example in November 2002 a tanker carrying 77000 tons of fuel oil sank in the Bay of Biscay which polluted thousands of kilometers of Western European coasts rivers streams and swamps Oil spills caused by ship accidents and other pollution associated with maritime activities have attracted considerable attention in the research community A large number of studies on shipping pollution have been conducted across different disciplines However new challenges are emerging in maritime operation and management leading to research questions related to intelligent technology and environmental protection maritime pollution and governance maritime accidents and environmental emergency     The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,2013     Young Bisexual Womens Experiences in Secondary Schools Mary-Anne McAllum,2017-09-11 Emerging from a case study in secondary schools this book explores young bisexual women s notions of bisexuality through their own sense of self identification and how they express their personal beliefs McAllum sheds light on the presence and practices of bisexual misrecognition and bi misogyny in school settings and draws out the implications of this bias on bisexual women Incorporating women s own spoken and written anecdotes this book reveals hidden narratives and helps boost awareness about the social and learning needs of young bisexual women
