Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics David Block, John Gray, Marnie Holborow, 2013-03-01 This book explores neoliberalism a view of the world that puts the market at its centre from the perspective of applied linguistics Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics argues that while applied linguistics has become more interdisciplinary in orientation it has ignored or downplayed the role of political economy namely the way in which social political and economic factors relate to one another within the context of a capitalist economy The authors take the view that engagement with political economy is central to any fully rounded analysis of language and language related issues in the world today and their collaboration in this volume represents an initial attempt to redress what they perceive to be an imbalance in the field The book begins with a discussion of neoliberalism and an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology impacts on language This is followed by a discussion of how globalization and identity have been conceptualised in applied linguistics in ways which have ignored the political centrality of class a concept which the authors see as integral to their perspective The book concludes with an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology plays out in two key areas of applied linguistics language teaching and language teacher education Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in applied linguistics Social Interaction and L2 Classroom Discourse Olcay Sert, 2015-08-19 This book offers a close investigation of interactional practices in L2 classrooms With an emphasis on the multimodal and multilingual resources this is an essential study for researchers and postgraduate students in TESOL and Applied Linguistics Tasks for Language Teachers Martin Parrott, 1993-05-13 This book contains 40 tasks of two types discussion tasks and classroom based tasks Headway: Intermediate. Teacher's Guide with Teacher's Resource Center , 2018-12-27 Second Language Acquisition in Action Andrea Nava, Luciana Pedrazzini, 2018-03-22 Despite the key role played by second language acquisition SLA courses in linguistics teacher education and language teaching degrees participants often struggle to bridge the gap between SLA theories and their many applications in the classroom In order to overcome the transfer problem from theory to practice Andrea Nava and Luciana Pedrazzini present SLA principles through the actions and words of teachers and learners Second Language Acquisition in Action identifies eight important SLA principles and involves readers in an experiential approach which enables them to explore these principles in action Each chapter is structured around three stages experience and reflection conceptualisation and restructuring and planning Discussion questions and tasks represent the core of the book These help readers in the process of experiencing SLA research and provide them with opportunities to try their hands at different areas of language teachers professional expertise Aimed at those on applied linguistics MA courses TESOL EFL trainees and in service teachers Second Language Acquisition in Action features Key Questions at the start of each chapter Data based tasks to foster reflection and to help bridge the gap between theory and practice Audiovisual extracts of lessons on an accompanying website Further Reading suggestions at the end of each chapter Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson, 2023-07-27 Viewing current developments in materials development through the eyes of developers users and researchers from all over the world this book applies principles to practice It provides a comprehensive coverage of the main aspects and issues in the field as well as critical overviews of recent developments in materials development and acts as a stimulus for innovation Now revised and updated to take account of developments over the last decade this 3rd edition features 8 new chapters covering materials use blended learning multimodality intercultural competence communicative competence the practical realisation of theoretical principles in the development of digital materials the teaching of right to left languages and the commodification of grammar Fully updated chapters with contemporary examples and considering teaching second and foreign languages other than English New pedagogical resources with the addition of tasks and further readings for each chapter New online resources 2 new chapters on producing videos on teacher development courses and materials development on teacher training courses and 2 updated chapters on development courses for teachers and simulations in teacher development alongside a range of additional tasks and further reading suggestions The Construction of English J.

Gray,2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks in addition to being curriculum artefacts are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally Research Methods for English Language Teachers Jo McDonough,Steven McDonough,2014-05-12 This book offers a lively introduction to the research methods and techniques available to English language teachers who wish to investigate aspects of their own practice It covers qualitative and quantitative methodology and includes sections on observation introspection diary studies experiments interviews questionnaires numerical techniques and case study research Each method is illustrated with examples in language teaching contexts and techniques of data collection and analysis are introduced The authors focus particularly on research in the classroom on tests materials the effects of innovations and they discuss methods appropriate to research in various collaborative modes as well as by individuals A key feature of the book is an introduction to the debate surrounding different approaches to research with an evaluation of traditional research in relation to the paradigms associated with reflective practice and action research The book is ideal for teachers on initial training and post experience courses students on degree programmes in applied linguistics and TEFL and of course practising teachers with an interest in research methods in language teaching Headway Liz Soars,John Soars,Stacey Hughes,2019-01-23 Trusted worldwide Inspired by you Updated with new texts topics and themes Headway fifth edition provides fresh and relevant English instruction that is tailored to your students needs NEW TO THIS EDITION Teach practical real life English that is relevant to your students lives with new topics and themes grounded in today s reality Bring unit topics to life with the new unit opener page which includes inspiring photographs and accompanying video introductions to engage students with the topic Download and adapt material for your students with the Teacher s Resource Centre which provides all your Headway resources stored in one place Online practice enables students to revisit activities from previous lessons do extra skills practice and check their progress with instant feedback Find out more here
