Question

Focus

Type of Response Expected

Common Pitfalls

Share a significant aspect of your identity

A personal narrative that showcases a unique aspect of the applicant's values, experiences, and personality

Avoid clichés and superficial descriptions. Be introspective and reflective. Keep the focus on how the experience shaped who you are.

Describe a challenge & how you overcame it

An essay that shows how the applicant handled adversity and grew from the experience

Avoid presenting yourself as a victim or blaming others for your setbacks. Focus on your growth and development.

Discuss a time you challenged an idea or belief

An essay that demonstrates critical thinking and intellectual curiosity

Avoid controversial or offensive topics that could alienate your reader. Be respectful and open-minded.

Reflect on a moment of gratitude

A personal narrative that shows how someone else's actions impacted the applicant

Avoid being too general or clichéd. Be specific and thoughtful.

Describe a personal growth experience

An essay that showcases how the applicant learned about themselves or others

Avoid bragging or presenting yourself as perfect. Be honest about your flaws and challenges.

Discuss an intellectual passion

An essay that reveals the applicant's interests and curiosity

Avoid being too obscure or abstract. Make sure your passion is something you can explain in detail.

Share an essay on any topic

An opportunity for the applicant to showcase their writing and creativity

Avoid clichés or writing on a topic that does not showcase your unique voice and perspective. Be thoughtful and original.

Write Yourself In Eric Tipler, 2024-06-11 Write authentic memorable college essays that will help you get into the right school for you with this guidebook from a veteran college admissions expert Every spring over one million high school juniors embark on an annual rite of passage applying to college And with college admission rates at an all time low getting into a competitive school is now tougher than ever At the top schools a strong transcript and great test scores will get your application noticed but it's your essays and the personal story that they highlight that will get you admitted But often students don't know where to start Teens fret over topics because they don't know what college admissions officers are looking for They bend over backwards to write what they think colleges want to read instead of telling their authentic story which is what admissions officers actually want in a way that will resonate with their readers They also struggle because college essays which are narrative first person and introspective require a different set of skills from academic expository writing they've been learning for years in the classroom Seasoned college admissions expert and educator Eric Tipler has seen this firsthand Teens and their parents spend countless anxiety filled hours crafting and refining essays that are often lackluster In Write Yourself In Tipler meets students where they are and provides comprehensive actionable advice in a warm and conversational tone He demonstrates how to craft a winning essay one that is authentic vulnerable and demonstrative of qualities like personal growth and emotional maturity Instead of formulas Write Yourself In gives students step by step processes for brainstorming outlining writing and revising essays It encourages them to seek out feedback at key points in the process something Tipler has found to be vital to helping students produce their best writing Further the book includes sidebars that teach essential components of good storytelling a secret weapon in the admissions process In addition to the admissions essay Write Yourself In also covers the most common supplemental essays on topics like community diversity openness to others viewpoints and why their school is a good fit for the student scholarship essays as well as scholarship essays Tipler includes sections that address current topics like the widespread use of ChatGPT and the discussion of race in the admissions essay a facet of the student's application that will have newfound importance given the Supreme Court decision on affirmative action Written with both the parent and teen in mind Write Yourself In is the go to handbook for writing a great college essay

Are You Mixed? Sonia E. Janis, 2016-02-01

In Are You Mixed Sonia Janis explores the spaces in between race and place from the perspective of an educator who is multi racial As she reflects on her own experiences as a seventh grade student up to her eventual appointment as a school administrator she learns of the complexity of situating oneself in predetermined demographic categories She shares how she explores the intricacies of undefined spaces that teach her to embrace differences contradictions and complexities in schools neighborhoods and communities Exploring the in betweenness Anzaldúa He 2003 2010 of her life as a multi race person problematizes imbedded notions of race gender class and power The power of this memoir lies in its narrative possibilities to capture the contradictions and paradoxes of lives in between race and place to honor the subtleties fluidities and complexities of such experience and to cultivate understanding towards individual experience and the multicultural multiracial contexts that shape and are shaped by such experience He 2003 p xvii This memoir creates new ways to think about and write about in between experience and their relevance to multicultural and multiracial education Janis challenges educators teachers administrators and policy makers to view the educational experience of students with multiracial multicultural and multilingual backgrounds by shattering predetermined categories and stereotyped classifications and looking into unknown and fluid realms of the in betweenness of their lives This challenge helps create equitable and just opportunities and engender culturally responsive and inspiring curricular and learning environments to bring out the best potential in all diverse schools communities neighborhoods tribes and societies
