Vaal 2015 Pageants:

Liberal Lives and Activist Repertoires Tracy C. Davis, 2023-06-01 This ambitious study traces the strategies of human rights activists to show how world changing reform movements were shaped by women and men from modest backgrounds who were deeply attuned to the power of performance Tracy C Davis explores nineteenth century reform campaigns through the pioneering work of a family of activists prominent anti slavery lecturer George Thompson his daughter Amelia the first female theatre and music critic for a British daily newspaper and her husband the political organizer Frederick Chesson Engaging in some of the most important social struggles of the late Georgian and Victorian periods including abolition enfranchisement and anti genocide this book reveals how two generations insights into performance consolidated into activist tactics that persist today Characterised by a skilful deployment of performance theory alongside deep and wide ranging historical knowledge this ground breaking work demonstrates what dramaturgy can teach us about history
