VAAI UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION FORM - 2022

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The application form must be completed (typed) and signed by the Postdoctoral Fellow.
2. In order to qualify for a Vaal University of Technology Postdoctoral fellowship, the following criteria will be considered during the selection process:
 - Candidates must be available for FULL-TIME RESEARCH at the Vaal University of Technology.
 - Candidates will be awarded a tenure of one year only that is renewable for a maximum of two years, subject to satisfactory performance and motivation from the respective Principal Investigator (PI)/Host.
 - The Fellowship is valued at a tax exempt R300, 000.00 per annum (Three Hundred Thousand Rand), and there are no benefits attached to this remuneration.
 - Candidates must have obtained their doctoral degrees within the LAST FIVE YEARS (2017 being the latest date of the degree being awarded).
 - Fellowships are awarded on a competitive basis, taking the Applicant's academic achievements and a good motivation as researcher into account. Applicants are encouraged to ensure that a full list of their publications is included in the CV section of the application form.
 - As the fellowship is primarily to enable the Postdoctoral Research Fellow (PDF) to focus on research, the fellowship holder may NOT HOLD FULL-TIME SALARIED EMPLOYMENT concurrently with tenure of the fellowship, however he/she will be allowed to undertake a maximum of twelve hours per week of teaching related work.
 - All awardees will be required to enter into a signed agreement with the Vaal University of Technology.
 - Any qualification obtained outside South Africa should be evaluated by the South African Qualification Authority (SAQA) and proof thereof must accompany the application.
 - It is the responsibility of the PI, to identify, screen, interview (with an interview panel) and select potential post-doctoral research fellows. Proof of the interview or screening method must be attached to the application form.
 - Once this selection process has been completed, all completed documents must be submitted to the Research Directorate for necessary processing.
 - Please note that there is little purpose in pursuing an application unless there is a clear commitment by a department to provide necessary facilities (office space, lab equipment etc.).
3. Applicants may submit these documents via email to their potential Principal Investigator (PI)/Host or to Mr Mahlaule Vulani
4. The PI must submit completed forms with all the necessary documentation to Mr VC Mahlaule (vulanim@vut.ac.za) in both physical and electronic form.

Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Advances in Best-Worst Method Jafar Rezaei, Matteo Brunelli, Majid Mohammadi, 2021-11-10 This book presents recent advances in the theory and application of the Best Worst Method BWM It includes selected papers from the Second International Workshop on Best Worst Method BWM2021 held in Delft The Netherlands from 10-11 June 2021 and provides valuable insights on why and how to use BWM in a diverse range of applications including health energy supply chain management and engineering The book highlights the use of BWM in different settings including single decision making vs group decision making and complete information vs incomplete and uncertain situations The papers gathered here will benefit academics and practitioners who are involved in multi criteria decision making and decision analysis Becoming a teacher Josef de Beer,2020-12-31 This book disseminates original research on learning in and from practice in pre service teacher education Authors such as Lederman and Lederman describe the student teaching practicum or work integrated learning WIL which is an essential component of pre service teacher education as the elephant in the room These authors note that the capstone experience in any teacher education programme is the student teaching practicum after all this is where the rubber hits the road However many teacher educators will agree that this WIL component is sometimes very insufficient in assisting the student teacher to develop their own footing and voice as a teacher This is the gap that this research book addresses Most of the chapters in the book report empirical data with the exception of two chapters that can be categorized as systematic reviews WIL is addressed from various angles in the chapters Chapter 6 focuses on research related to what makes Finnish teacher education so effective and in Chapter 4 researchers of the University of Johannesburg disseminate their findings on establishing a teaching school based on Finnish insights in Johannesburg Chapter 3 highlights the challenges faced in open and distance learning teacher education contexts Several of the chapters disseminate research findings on alternative interventions to classic WIL namely where safe spaces or laboratories are created for student teachers to learn and grow professionally These could either be simulations such as software programmes and avatars in the intervention described in Chapter 2 student excursions as the findings in chapters 5 7 and 10 portray or alternative approaches to WIL e g Chapters 11 and 12 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education The target audience is scholars working in the fields of pre service teacher education work integrated learning and self directed learning The book makes a unique contribution in terms of firstly its extensive use of Cultural Historical Activity Theory as a research lens and secondly in drawing on various theoretical frameworks Both quantitative and qualitative research informed the findings of the book Seeing and Knowing Geoffrey Blundell,Christopher Chippindale,Benjamin Smith,2016-06-16 The purpose of Seeing and Knowing is to demonstrate the depth and wide geographical impact of David Lewis Williams contribution to rock art research by emphasizing theory and methodology drawn from ethnography Contributors explore what it means to understand and learn from rock art and a contrast is drawn between those sites where it is possible to provide a modern ethnographic context and those sites where it is not This is the definitive guide to the interplay between ethnography and rock art interpretation and is an ideal resource for students and researchers alike Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan,Noor Nieftagodien,Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,Bhekizizwe Peterson,2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country's future. Since that momentous time, students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history. Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists, Students Must Rise takes Soweto 76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment. Early chapters assess the impact of the anti-pass campaigns of the 1950s, of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas. Later chapters explore the wide-reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country. Two final chapters consider contemporary student-based political movements including Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa. 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings. This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments, the 1976 students' uprising in Soweto, in a deeper historical and geographic context.

Naturalizing Inequality Michela Marcatelli, 2021-10-05. More than twenty-five years after the end of apartheid, water access remains a striking reminder of racial inequality in South Africa. This book compellingly argues that in the post-apartheid period, inequality has not only been continuously reproduced but also legitimized. Michela Marcatelli unravels this inequality paradox through an ethnography of water in a rural region of the country. The Waterberg Plateau is a space where agriculture, conservation, and extraction coexist and intersect. Marcatelli examines the connections between neoliberalism, race, and the environment by showing that racialized property relations around water and land are still recognized and protected by the post-apartheid state to sustain green growth. She argues that the government depicts growth as the best if not only solution to inequality. While white landowners maintain access to water, however, black ex-farmworkers are dispossessed once again of this essential life resource. If the promise of growth serves to normalize inequality, the call to save nature has the effect of naturalizing it even further. Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23.

Bodies of Truth Rita Kesselring, 2016-10-12. Bodies of Truth offers an intimate account of how apartheid victims deal with the long-term effects of violence, focusing on the intertwined themes of embodiment, injury, victimhood, and memory. In 2002, victims of apartheid-era violence filed suit against multinational corporations, accusing them of aiding and abetting the security forces of the apartheid regime. While the litigation made its way through the U.S. courts, thousands of victims of gross human rights violations have had to cope with painful memories of violence. They have also confronted an official discourse claiming that the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of the 1990s sufficiently addressed past injuries. This book shows victims attempting to emancipate from their experiences by participating in legal actions but also by creating new forms of sociality among themselves and in relation to broader South African society. Rita Kesselring's ethnography draws on long term research with members of the victim support group Khulumani and critical analysis of legal proceedings related to apartheid era injury Using juridical intervention as an entry point into the question of subjectivity Kesselring asks how victimhood is experienced in the everyday for the women and men living on the periphery of Cape Town and in other parts of the country She argues that the everyday practices of the survivors must be taken up by the state and broader society to allow for inclusive social change in a post conflict setting Patriots & Parasites Dene Smuts,2016-11-01 Patriots The great experiment in catharsis that was the Truth and Reconciliation Commission The reinvigoration of racial polarisation under the Mbeki administration and the slow burn of resentment that is coming to a head among the next generation as manifested in the RhodesMustFall campaign The entrenchment of cronyism under Zuma and the fight to protect the crucial balance of accountability enshrined in the freedom of the media and the independence of the judiciary Encyclopedia of African Colonial Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton,2016-11-07 Two volumes introduce the history of colonial wars in Africa and illustrate why African countries like the Democratic Republic of Congo Nigeria Somalia and Sudan continue to experience ethnic political and religious violence in the early 21st century This sweeping study examines the wars of colonial conquest fought in Africa during the 19th and early 20th centuries From Britain s efforts to wrest control of the Sudan from military leader Muhammad Ahmad al Mahdi to Italy s decisive defeat at the Battle of Adowa in Ethiopia to Leopold II s brutal reign over the Belgian Congo the work surveys the devastation reaped upon the continent by colonization and illustrates how its combative influence continues to resonate in Africa today Written by scholars in the fields of history and politics this complete reference includes entries on wars campaigns rebellions battles leaders and organizations The work delves into key historical periods including the Scramble for Africa ca 1880 to 1910 early European colonial wars in Africa such as the Dutch in the Cape and the Portuguese in Angola and Mozambique and African rebellions against the early colonial state in the 1890s and early 1900s Entries feature prominent events and personalities as well as lesser known occurrences and players
