"WE ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS"

Chief Guest, The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellors Principals of Colleges, Deans, Directors, our beloved teachers, parents my colleague graduands and all protocols observed; Distinguished Guest, Ladies and Gentlemen. Good morning!

I am humbled to address such a wonderful gathering here today – all under the umbrella of cherishing success. History brings us here through a long winding trip that can only be defined by the faithful as a miracle. It is a miracle to those of us who only witnessed others rewarded but never thought about the dawn of our day. Now it is our turn. Our turn to take those powers to read and do all that appertains to the degree.

On behalf of my colleague graduands, I hereby extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all of you who gave us this opportunity. You have proved to us that indeed hard work pays.

To our parents, thank you for understanding that the only inheritance you could dedicate to us was this education. We promised never to let you down and today you can attest to this. We did that and we have successfully completed our task. To God be all the glory.

SENE, THE GODDESS OF TRIBAL EMPOWERMENT Dr. Bhupinder Singh IAS [Retd.], 2022-07-10 Dr Bhupinder Singh IAS Retd has devoted himself to social justice in the cause of tribals and marginalised sections of India passionately evolving concepts and driving policies etc during his entire career in the Indian Administrative Service and post retirement a total of nearly six decades He brought energy empathy passion and scholarship to what he regarded not a job but life s dedicated goal He is widely recognised as a thought leader and authored three committees seminal reports The first one on Jharkhand led to the formation of the new state The Bodo Councils were born out of the report on Plains tribes of Assam The tribal customized Panchayat system in Scheduled Areas of nine States burgeoned based on the recommendations in the third report for the proposed law on extension of the provisions of the Constitution 73rd amendment Act 1992 to Scheduled Areas Federal India was historically reconfigured As a member of the second Commission on Scheduled Areas and Scheduled Tribes set up by the Government of India under Article 339 1 he played a key role in its activities and particularly in writing in major part its 2004 report Post retirement he continues to tirelessly champion the cause in many ways The Author felt the need to turn to fiction since any number of Central and State reports have produced disproportionately lower outcomes He hopes that a work of sociological fiction might spread interest among members of civil society and create waves among millions of tribal friends all over the country through the messages of goddess Sene delivered hopefully in their own languages to demand and secure their rights and entitlements democratically

Who Will Water the Flowers? CADET #271 (Louis F. Horner), 2016-05-23 aThe author invites you to embark on a journey to provoke your thinking about friendship opportunity and race relations in America This may take you in a direction you had not previously considered as you navigate the course of your own life Resetting your own sails may reap rewards The author's inspiration to write came from a startling spiritual experience which he describes in The Awakening This led to introspection and an urgent sense that a story must be told More than twenty years passed before he understood the specifics of why what and when he was to write He tells of his 2002 epiphany and a story spanning three quarters of a century Mr Horner tells a story of overcoming adversity and making a full life beyond what his racial and family background might predict He tells a story of working class boys from divergent roots building lifelong bonds beginning in military college Everyone has a story In telling his Mr Horner answers the question Who will water the flowers Testimonial As a PMC cadet of the class of 1963 I found the book a compelling read Many of the stories by the class of 62 relate and resonate with my experiences and without speculation probably to PMC cadets at large The complex thoughts of boys to men strangers who through leadership subsumed their individual needs for the greater good of a brotherhood of men This is a complex formula for those who have not been in the cauldron the formative chemistry of all of us good and bad To me the most compelling aspect of the book was the author's journey through life and the role of PMC friendship mentorship and leadership played in his life's journey The lessons learned of this journey may help us set the course to make our great nation better General John H Tillie USA Retired

Leading Out Loud Terry Pearce, 2003-06-03 As the cycle of change increases its speed leadership communication is becoming more important than ever Since the original publication of Leading Out Loud in 1995 the development of a leader's message has become as critical to success as the delivery of that message In this new and revised edition of his highly praised work Terry Pearce explains how the events of recent years including the information revolution worldwide focus on terrorism and the revelation of corporate scandals have significantly increased the importance of authenticity in leadership to build loyalty in organizations This new edition focuses on the source of a message for change its development as a platform for leadership communication and its many forms of expression from speeches to e-mails, memos, and even informal water cooler conversation. Pearce shows leaders in business, politics, and nonprofits how to communicate their values and vision to inspire commitment; he provides tools and examples from well-known leaders as well as less-known but effective change agents. Leading Out Loud gives readers concrete methods for improving their own communication by guiding them to do the internal work necessary for creating an honest and compelling vision and by demonstrating how readers can find their authentic voice and articulate their messages with confidence. People make commitments, says Pearce, to causes they value and to people they respect and trust. An authentic voice and an inclusive perspective are requisites for any leader who would inspire change. Trust is built by communicating from both the mind and the heart, speaking directly to the minds and hearts of others, listening to their response, and respecting their points of view. All leaders will benefit from Pearce's wisdom, as will anyone else who wants to inspire positive change through others. No Regrets Parenting Harley A. Rotbart M.D., Harley A. The Lyceum Magazine Ralph Albert Parlette, 1922 You Shall Not Condemn Jennifer M. McBride, 2022-06-13 This book tells the story of Kelly Gissendaner the only woman on Georgia s death row until her execution in 2015 and highlights the role theological studies played in her faith and in advocacy efforts on her behalf Central to the book is the written correspondence between Kelly and German theologian Jürgen Moltmann known internationally as the theologian of hope After reading Moltmann s work in a course taught by McBride at the prison Kelly began a five year correspondence with him When Kelly was denied clemency a local and international advocacy movement arose that was rooted in her theological studies and friendship with him The advocacy campaign challenged Christians who supported the death penalty to re examine basic truths of Christian faith As it was unfolding the story of Kelly s transformation changed people s minds not only about her case but also about the death penalty itself Weaving together powerful storytelling and theological expertise McBride recounts that story again here with an aim toward abolition and offers practical ways that readers may enter the work

Security Strategy and Transatlantic Relations Roland Dannreuther, John Peterson, 2006-09-27 In this much needed study of current strategic thinking on both sides of the Atlantic a diverse collection of leading European and American analysts are assembled to tackle key questions that remain unanswered in the existing literature how much do new security strategies signal convergence or divergence in US and EU foreign and security policy doctrine what tangible political and policy impacts can be attributed to new security strategies what are the implications for US and EU policies towards specific regions what are the prospects for collective transatlantic action The legacy of 9 11 is scrutinized against the backdrop of the strategic thinking that preceded it In the 1990s the US struggled to develop a new doctrine for American foreign policy seeking at various times to promote a New World Order or democratic enlargement For its part the EU had tried to underpin its new Common Foreign and Security Policy with a coherent set of European values multilateralism human rights environmental protection and poverty reduction that were best defended via collective European action Key continuities and changes in these transatlantic efforts since 9 11 are clearly identified and closely examined
