Photojournalists On War The Untold Stories From Iraq:

Photojournalists on War Michael Kamber, 2013-05-15 With previously unpublished photographs by an incredibly diverse group of the world's top news photographers Photojournalists on War presents a groundbreaking new visual and oral history of America's nine year conflict in the Middle East Michael Kamber interviewed photojournalists from many leading news organizations including Agence France Presse the Associated Press the Guardian the Los Angeles Times Magnum Newsweek the New York Times Paris Match Reuters Time the Times of London VII Photo Agency and the Washington Post to create the most comprehensive collection of eyewitness accounts of the Iraq War yet published These in depth interviews offer first person frontline reports of the war as it unfolded including key moments such as the battle for Fallujah the toppling of Saddam's statue and the Haditha massacre The photographers also vividly describe the often shocking and sometimes heroic actions that journalists undertook in trying to cover the war as they discuss the role of the media and issues of censorship These hard hitting accounts and photographs rare in the annals of any war reveal the inside and untold stories behind the headlines in Iraq

Afterimages Liam Kennedy, 2016-03-01 In 2005 photographer Chris Hondros captured a striking image of a young Iraqi girl in the aftermath of the killing of her parents by American soldiers The shot stunned the world and has since become iconic comparable to the infamous photo by Nick Ut of a Vietnamese girl running from a napalm attack Both images serve as microcosms for their respective conflicts Afterimages looks at the work of war photographers like Hondros and Ut to understand how photojournalism interacts with the American worldview Liam Kennedy here maps the evolving relations between the American way of war and photographic coverage of it Organized in its first section around key US military actions over the last fifty years the book then moves on to examine how photographers engaged with these conflicts on wider ethical and political grounds and finally on to the genre of photojournalism itself Illustrated throughout with examples of the photographs being considered Afterimages argues that photographs are important means for critical reflection on war violence and human rights It goes on to analyze the high ethical sociopolitical and legalistic value we place on the still image's ability to bear witness and stimulate action

Women, Warfare and Representation Emerald M. Archer, 2017-07-13 Women Warfare and Representation considers the various ways the American servicewoman has been represented throughout the 20th century and how those representations impact the roles she is permitted to inhabit While women have a relatively short history in the American military the last century shows an evolution of women s direct participation in war despite the need to overcome societal sex role expectations The primary focus is on the American case but Emerald Archer also introduces a comparative element showing how women s integration in the military differs in other countries including Great Britain Canada and Israel Adopting an interdisciplinary approach the book draws on military history theory and social psychology to offer a more complete and integrated history of women in the military and their representation in society

The Snares Rav Grewal-Kök, 2025-04-01 A Punjabi American lawyer at a mysterious federal intelligence agency fights to keep his career marriage and morality intact in this gripping post 9 11 drama from a thrilling new voice Here is at long last our immigrant John le Carr Rav Grewal K k is a fearless and visionary writer Xuan Juliana Wang author of Home Remedies Are you happy where you are Toiling in the trenches of the Justice Department In the waning months of George W Bush s presidency Neel Chima a former naval officer and federal prosecutor is recruited to join a new federal intelligence agency one with greater than usual powers and fewer than usual restrictions Neel soon finds himself intimately involved in the surveillance of domestic terrorism suspects and the selection of foreigners for drone assassination men who often look just like his Sikh family members As both his ambitions and his moral qualms mount he is drawn farther and farther away from his wife and two young daughters When he makes a critical mistake at work he is left vulnerable to shadowy figures in the intelligence world who seek to use him in their own still more radical counterterrorism missions If he agrees the world of power will open up even wider to him If he doesn t Is Neel an insider or an outsider The hunter or the hunted An idealist or a mercenary What truths and whose lives is he willing to sacrifice The novel plunges readers into the human turmoil behind the faceless operations the torture secret assassinations and drone strikes of the American security state creating an eye opening meditation on morality violence and the price of a human soul Chariton Review 37.2 Truman State University Press,2014-10-30 Chariton Review Fall 2014 U.S. Militarism and the Terrain of Memory John Bechtold,2024-08-01 This book analyzes how the Iraqi city of Fallujah became registered as a setting for military heroics in American memory In 2004 the U S military conducted two disastrous assaults in Fallujah Iraq More than 1 000 citizens were killed and according to the military s own estimate upwards of 200 000 people were displaced because of the violence Yet despite this human catastrophe the kind of information that emerged in the public domain during the battle foregrounded the soldier s experience in war while effacing the destruction of Iraqi bodies This tendency to foreground the soldier body is a direct result of the military s intervention in what they conceptualize as the information environment This book draws from the second assault in Fallujah as a case study to explicate the military s investment in this perspectival space which is a consequence both of the mediatization of contemporary war and of the need to influence knowledge considered unfavorable to military operations In short the military enlists the media in their targeting process to produce information that is then deployed as persuasive force to modify the beliefs of specific target populations When the cultural texts produced by the media are remediated in the public domain after war they can be thought of as martial constructs because they originated during war through the military s systemized attempt to influence knowledge That is these texts trace to a specific battlefield objective This book reframes the notion of propaganda as a generalized public relations strategy into a more acute and coordinated attempt to decontextualize specific knowledge in the information environment This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies war studies memory studies and international relations Issues in Media CQ Researcher,2014-12-31 What is the future of television What is the impact of media violence on society Is news quality better or worse online Should we regulate internet and social media use and if so how Will traditional print books disappear from the marketplace These are just a sampling of the important provocative questions in this new reader sure to provide a solid foundation to spark lively classroom discussion For current coverage of controversial and important issues centering on media look to the balanced reporting complete overviews and engaging writing that CQ Researcher has consistently provided for more than eighty years This brief reader allows students to see the links between media culture business and politics and an opportunity to view the issues from all sides while giving them a window into the relationships between media culture business and politics In addition useful pedagogical features pro con debates graphs tables photos suggested readings and bibliographies advance critical thinking and help in study and review 50
