Posthumus's ground breaking work brings together thinkers such as Guattari, Latour and Serres with recent ecocritical theories to complicate what might otherwise become a reductive notion of French ecocriticism. Working across contemporary philosophy and literature, the book defines the concept of the ecological as an attentiveness to specific nature culture contexts and to a text's many interdiscursive connections. Posthumus identifies four key concepts: ecological subjectivity, ecological dwelling, ecological politics, and ecological ends for changing how we think about human nature relations. French ecocritique highlights the importance of moving beyond canonical ecocritical texts and examining a diversity of cultural and literary traditions for new ways of imagining the environment. Journal of Education and School World, 1887
