

COMMISSIONING PRAYER

Chaplain Roy Bishop

Almighty and Eternal God, we would reverently invoke Thy blessing today.

Thou, in whose hands are the affairs of mankind, be pleased to take into Thine almighty and most gracious keeping, this ship, which we commission today, and all the men who shall serve therein.

We remember with grateful hearts, the labor, the skill, and the sacrifice that have gone into the building of this vessel and we pray, that, in Thy good Providence, it may ever be a safeguard unto the principles of freedom and justice among men.

To this end, lead us in the hour of battle, that we may acquit ourselves as men, doing our full part, that the enemies of freedom may be destroyed and a righteous peace established.

And thine shall be the Glory, forever. Amen.

THE BENEDICTION

Chaplain Daniel Fraher

Almighty Eternal God, send down upon this ship, newly commissioned in our country's service, Thy richest gifts—that we who serve therein may be harmed by no adversity, either physical or spiritual. Endow the officers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire the men with the spirit of truth, loyalty and courage. Enable all to maintain our honor unsullied—and to acquit ourselves as men in all our duties. Fill our hearts with the spirit of comradeship and charity; endow us with reverence for the sacred things of life—through Christ our Lord. Amen.

David W. Gill, 2022-09-23 In his memoir What Are You Doing About It ethicist and activist David W. Gill takes readers on an exciting inside tour of the academic, cultural, religious, and political landscape in which he has lived and worked for the past several decades. From Berkeley to Bordeaux, Chicago to Boston, from the business trenches and the local church to the seminary and the graduate school of business, from marching in the streets to the writer's study, from entrepreneurial leadership to institutional challenge, Gill never wavered in his mission to promote the ethical insights and values of Jesus and Scripture in the workplace as much as the churchplace. This is a story to inspire a new generation of thoughtful activists.

The Word and Power Church Douglas Banister, 2009-09-03 You don't have to head overseas to find a war. In the church, the rhetorical crossfire between evangelical and spirit-filled Christians over the past hundred years has been withering. No scriptural foundations, is the charge evangelicals have leveled at the charismatics. No spiritual power, the latter have countered. The boundaries are clear. The positions are taken and guarded. Either you're a Word person or a Power person. Today though, such black and white either/or thinking is giving way to the liberty and promise of a Word and Power church. Pastor Doug Banister shows why we cannot afford to settle for less. It's time to bury our differences, which are largely artificial, and discover the incredible potential that arises when evangelicals combine their strengths with Pentecostals and charismatics. Taking a long, careful, and honest look at the Scriptures, church history, and at the state of the church and the world today, Pastor Banister reveals why Pentecostalism and evangelicalism need each other. Each tradition possesses strengths that are essential to a balanced, life-changing faith. The Word and Power Church shows how these two mighty rivers add to rather than subtract from each other. At the cusp of a new millennium, they are in fact merging into one river. Word and Power churches may experience turbulence where the waters meet, but they teem with life, hope, faith, and power to reach a desperate world with the Gospel. Filled with personal anecdotes, this fascinating, thought-provoking, and candid book supplies the why-tos and how-tos of a Word and Power approach. What you won't find is preferential treatment of one view over another. What you will find are thoughtful biblical insights that will challenge you and inspire you. And you'll discover practical guidance for charting your own course, whether as an individual or as a church, toward a faith that embraces the truth of the Word and the power of the Spirit. As a solidly evangelical seminary graduate and pastor, Banister admits to having disdained charismatics. That is, until meticulous study of God's Word convinced him that miraculous gifts of tongues, healing, and prophecy are indeed valid for today. As he details his journey beyond categories, Banister explores the reasons for the age-old rift between the two camps and the ways in which healing is taking place in new Word and Power churches all over America. When evangelicals and charismatics bring together the best from each tradition, he has discovered, the result is a strong, unified body. Word and Power churches affirm the authority of Scripture and encourage the prophetic embrace of those who pray in a spiritual language, pursue obedience to Christ, edify the believer, and evangelize the seeker, heal the sick, and comfort the suffering. The Word and Power Church will speak to Christians everywhere who want to walk in both the integrity of Scripture and the power of the Holy Spirit Rites of Ordination and Commitment in the Churches of the Nordic Countries Hans Raun Iversen, 2006 A unique situation exists in the Nordic countries where there is a Lutheran majority living in ecumenical cooperation with other churches and ecclesiastical communities This book attempts to shed light on what the churches have discovered they hold in common and on areas where they recognise that there are divergencies between them both in relation to ordination and ministry and in particular to the theology and terminology of ordination The book brings together the research and insights of 23 researchers from all the Nordic countries studying more than 200 different kinds of ordination rites from the Orthodox and Roman Catholic as well as Lutheran and non Lutheran protestant traditions After an introduction to the churches in the Nordic countries the book presents 19 case studies from the Nordic countries The last part includes some general ecumenical and liturgical perspectives on ordination and rites presented by international researchers Knowing God to Make Him Known Ed Scheuerman, 2021-04-20 Christians are all too familiar with the dichotomy between being a Mary sitting at Jesus feet and being a Martha being active in ministry We have been told that before we can do we first need to be And this is well and good But it is insufficient Before we can be we first need to know We need to know who God is God s attributes so that we can then be who we are intended to be in Christ Only then should we seek to do what he has called and equipped us to do for his glory This book focuses on knowing God in his many attributes so that we can become conformed to his image in order to do what he s called us to do to bring the gospel to the world A Missionary in the Making Mabel Tyrrell, 2007 Are you ready to discover how daily a missionary life is Mabel has succeeded in helping young people and adults understand the daily workings of God in the life of a missionary Transparent truthful funny and touching are some of the words that help describe this book Mabel is a faithful missionary at our school and lives her life close to our Lord Her greatest desire is to use this work to stir others to greater service It is an inspiration Mrs Glynna Stone Vice Principal New Hope Christian Schools Mabel Tyrrell grew up in the Rogue Valley of Oregon graduated from Southern Oregon College and taught school for two years before attending Multnomah School of the Bible and Prairie Bible College She joined SIM Serving in Mission formerly Sudan Interior Mission in 1950 and served as a missionary teacher in Nigeria for 34 years Medical retirement brought her home in 1985 After the Lord renewed her health she served for four years as a missionary in her Samaria nursing homes in Sequim Washington For the past 19 years she has been a missionary at New Hope Christian Schools in Grants Pass Oregon and continues serving there in her Jerusalem Pastoral and Occasional Liturgies Leonel L. Fettke, 2010-12-15 Professional ministers and their work as church leaders have dominated church and pastoral ministry studies Lay ministry studies have been neglected In the local church lay ministries are often defined solely by their voluntary service in the local church and even then are regarded as secondary to the work of the professional minister s leading the local church This study proposes that the word minister should be applied to all believers and that professional ministers and their ministries should serve the larger group doing ministry the laity Lay ministry should not be understood only as that service done in the local church but should be understood as a call received and obeyed by the laity to do the work of ministry in their work places and their neighborhoods as well as their local churches Following Amos Yong s theology of disability and the formation of the L Arce communities found throughout the world this God's Empowered People will show how the local church can welcome all in Christ s name into a community of the Spirit in which people are loved and respected for who they are From such a welcoming loving and respectful community can come people of varying abilities who discover their special gifts of ministry then take their gifts into the work world market place and neighborhoods to do the work of ministry in Christ s name They will be able to go places and do things no professional minister could go or do yet still need the professional minister to help prepare them to do the work of ministry Thus professional and lay ministries are not competitive but complementary In such a community of professional and lay ministries operating cooperatively all have the opportunity to express wisely their gifts in their arenas of calling and influence
