

SHORT PRAYER FOR A MISSION TRIP

God, I thank You that You have allowed us to be part of Your plan to save and rescue people. What a privilege that is. I understand that it is you alone who will change the hearts of people so I ask that you go before this trip and soften the hearts of the individuals that will be hearing the Good News. I pray that you will keep everyone safe, but more than that I pray that you keep everyone within your will. Allow hearts to change and lives to grow for your glory.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Winter, 2004 Prayers for the Faithful Mary Ann Bridgwater, 2008 A few words from Beth Moore About ten years ago God began leading me to take a far more active role in missions primarily through daily intercession I recall wondering How does a person approach praying for the entire world God graciously placed tools in my hands along the way but I can assure you I've never seen one quite like Prayers for the Faithful Mary Ann Bridgwater has done her homework This guide is packed full of Scripture All we need to do is add some faith open our mouths and pray them The testimonies she has included will cause our fellow servants on the field to become more than names to you Their stories and requests will steal your heart and hopefully some of your prayer time Thank you Mary Ann for providing us with the very words of God to pray over His servants Heaven alone will bear witness of its profound harvest If you've been wanting to get more involved in the work being done by missionaries around the world

Prayers for the Faithful is the answer for you a complete guide to devoting daily deliberate prayer into everything that matters most to missionaries their ministries their families their motivations and desires even their parents and relatives back home It s an opportunity to make your prayers match the heartbeat of God while helping to accomplish His work in hearts a world away Whether individually in small groups or as an entire churchwide emphasis let this inspired plan of intercession lead you where you ve always wanted your prayer life to go somewhere far beyond you Praying for Your Missionary Eddie Byun,2018-12-04 Missionaries need the support of the church and a faithful covering of prayer But for many Christians they are out of sight out of mind How can we effectively intercede for the missionaries in our lives Eddie Byun shows the vital connection between prayer and missions providing a handy guide to praying for missionaries needs as well as for protection from burnout and harm Ready-to-Go Devotions for Mission and Service Mark Ray,2010-10-01 Ready to Go Devotions for Mission and Service is a toolkit of daily devotionals for youth mission trips The devotionals in this book address every aspect of the mission experience from leaving home and sleeping on the floor to dealing with language barriers and grumpy teammates Each devotion includes a relevant Bible story a commentary that connects that story to the mission experience and a section that challenges the reader to take specific actions on the trip back home or both The book includes devotionals in preparation for during and after the mission trip or service project The ready to go format allows the youth worker to quickly assemble a customized devotional journal for participants matching each day s selection to what s likely to happen that day The devotionals could also be used in a group setting which would allow the youth worker to pick devotionals based on what has happened during the trip or event Either way the devotionals point to the larger biblical and personal significance of mission trip or service project happenings What if you held a mission trip and nobody changed It s a haunting daunting question one that youth workers and researchers across America are beginning to ask Short term mission trips STM have exploded in popularity since the mid 1990s thanks in part to the Internet which makes connecting with mission agencies and mission recipients easier than ever Sociologist Kurt Ver Beek estimates that the number of North American short term missionaries grew from 125 000 in 1989 to as many as four million in 2003 Many of those short termers are teenagers According to Christianity Today more than two million American teens enter the mission field every year Pollster George Barna reports that 15 percent of U S Christian teens have done a short term mission trip while the National Study of Youth and Religion found that 29 percent of all teens had participated in a short term mission trip or religious service project Unfortunately the impact of short term mission trips may be short term as well both for those who go on mission trips and for those who receive mission teams Ver Beek recently surveyed North Americans who worked in Honduras after a 1998 hurricane as well as those who were served by them He found that the North American work teams had little or no lasting impact on the communities they served and that missionaries reported only a small positive lasting change in their own lives The situation isn t hopeless however according to Robert Priest associate professor of mission and intercultural studies at

Trinity Evangelical Divinity School In research with Ph D students at Trinity he wrote in Christianity Today I ve been impressed that while STM may not always or automatically produce desired results the right sorts of STM carried out in the right sorts of ways and accompanied by the right sorts of reflections have potential for good Unfortunately youth workers don t always build the right sorts of reflections into their mission trips At best they allot time in the daily schedule for reflection or debriefing At worst they just hope and pray that their students will somehow be transformed by the mission experience The existing literature isn t much help Books on mission trip planning offer plenty of advice on selecting a mission agency raising money coordinating transportation handling emergencies entering closed countries and re entering the normal world but they offer precious little advice on using the mission experience to impact the participants lives The handful of available mission focused devotional guides offer some assistance but they typically take a one size fits all approach Usually presented as mission journals these guides assume trips will be a certain length or include certain elements such as dealing with non English speakers Ready to Go Devotions for Mission and Service fills the void offering targeted topical devotionals that can help turn short term missions into life changing experiences Short-Term Missions Workbook Tim

Equipping for Global Mission offers insights from seasoned scholars and practitioners Beginning with theological convictions and practical reflections our authors make a case for what equipping for mission could look like in the present global church Case studies from India China North America and Britain further challenge the reader to reflect on this critical issue The full scope of educating for mission is far too broad of a task for any single organization This is why the contributors serve the church so well by enlarging a much needed conversation This book is a clarion call to all who care about missions and the global church Join world leaders in reshaping missions education today by using the practical and strategic wisdom in these pages

Women and Missions Lucia P. Towne, 1934 Global Mission Rose Dowsett, 2011-06-27 Reflections and Case Studies in Contextualization for the Whole Church Global Mission is divided into two sections the first Reflections and Foundations comprises nine essays of a more general nature the second Contextualization at Work contains twenty one essays of a more specific nature most of them case studies from a particular location and people group The thirty three contributors come from five continents and a host of contexts Some are veterans some quite young but every one of them is passionate about God's mission and about building bridges for the gospel in a way that is absolutely faithful to Scripture but also sensitive to specific contexts North and South East and West demonstrate precious unity in Christ in our common calling Contextualization is complex and none of the authors claim to have got everything right But their essays are thoughtful and written out of love for God and love for his world They tell the stories of trial and error of struggles and triumphs as each seeks to present Christ in terms that make sense and can be understood It is following the process quite as much as specific conclusions which make this book valuable and transferable to many other parts of the global church The essays also give us a peep into many different societies and the birthing of faith in the grace of the Holy Spirit Thus we give thanks to God for all that he is wonderfully doing around his world and stimulate our prayers for those who work cross culturally especially in pioneer situations Not all contributors agree on every point especially when it comes to the difficulties of mission in the Muslim world and increasingly amongst Hindus There has been no attempt to standardize different approaches letting a robust conversation develop Each chapter ends with some suggested study questions useful for personal reflection or group or class discussion The book is deliberately accessible to lay people but stimulating to career missionaries and academics
