Evening hours, ed. by E.H. Bickersteth Edward Henry Bickersteth (bp. of Exeter), 1874 The Unforgotten Prayer Danny Rittman, 2011-02-09 This is my story my life from the horrors of war and slaughter to the travails of change and atonement For much of my life I lived in fear that my past would catch up to me I hid my beliefs and prejudices and walked among the gentle unsuspecting people of a small American town I am or was an embodiment of madness atrocity cruelty and horror I had to remind myself how to behave react and interact with those around me I could not pick my friends neighbors or the people I would like to associate with I could not express my desires and thoughts I could not do what I wanted to do I was locked inside a mad world without the ability to make any contribution as I used to do during the war and before it Friends and neighbors I shunned them Social groups and religious organizations I shunned them as well Often I thought it better to turn myself in or die one way or another just to get everything over with That changed one day a miraculous day when a young child came into my life and helped me back into life reappraisal and a quest for atonement That young child was Jewish And I am a former SS officer
