Nicholas Wikeley,2006-10-10 Written by one of the UK s leading scholars of welfare law this book analyses the current child support legislation in its broader historical and social context synthesising both doctrinal and socio legal approaches to legal research and scholarship The book draws on the historical and legal literature on the Poor Law and the development of both the public and private law obligation of child maintenance Modern child support law must also be considered in the context of both social and demographic changes and in the light of popular norms about child maintenance liabilities The main part of the book is devoted to an analysis of the modern child support scheme and the key issues are addressed the distinction between applications in private and benefit cases and the extent to which the courts retain a role in child maintenance matters the basis for and the justification for the exception from the obligation for parents with care on benefit to co operate with the Child Support Agency where they fear undue harm or distress the assessment of income for the purposes of the formula and the evidential difficulties this entails the tension between the formula which ignores the parent with care s income and the demands of distributive justice the further conflict between the formula under which liability is capped only for the very wealthy and the traditional approach of private law which is premised on children being entitled to maintenance rather than a share in family wealth the treatment of special cases under the formula by way of variations formerly departures the nature of decision making and the scope for appeals and the efficacy of the provisions relating to collection and enforcement This book has been shortlisted for the 2007 SLSA Book Prize      H.R. 1488, the "Hyde-Woolsey" Child Support Bill United States. Administrative Justice in the 21st Century Michael Harris,Martin Partington,1999-04-01 The idea of administrative justice is central to the British system of public law more embracing than judicial review or even administrative law itself It embraces all the mechanisms designed to achieve a proper balance between the exercise of public and quasi public power and those affected by the exercise of that power This book contains revised versions of the papers given at the International Conference on Administrative Justice held in Bristol in 1997 Forty years after the publication of the Franks Committee report on Tribunals and Inquiries the conference reflected on developments since then and sought to provoke debate about how the future might unfold Participants included policy makers tribunal chairs and ombudsmen other decision takers as well as academics a formidable combination of expertise in the operation of the administrative justice system Among the themes addressed in the papers are the following the effect of the changing nature of the state on current institutions human rights and administrative justice the relationship between decision taking reviews of decisions and the adjudication of appeals and the overview of administrative justice taking into account lessons from abroad The new millenium provides an opportunity for the reappraisal of the British system of administrative justice this volume presents an indispensable repository of the ideas needed to understand how that system should develop over the coming years Contributors Michael Adler Margaret Allars Dame Elizabeth Anson Lord Archer of Sandwell Michael Barnes Julia Black Christa Christensen David Clark Gwynn Davis Godfrey Cole Suzanne Day Julian Farrand Tamara Goriely Michael Harris Ed Neville Harris Tony Holland Terence Ison Christine Lally Douglas Lewis Rosemary Lyster Aileen McHarg Walter Merricks Linda Mulcahy Stephen Oliver Alan Page Martin Partington Ed David Pearl Jane Pearson Paulyn Marrinan Quinn John Raine Andrew Rein Alan Robertson Roy Sainsbury John Scampton Chris Shepley Caroline Sheppard Patricia Thomas Brian Thompson Nick Wikeley Tom Williams Jane Worthington Richard Young     A Guide for Judges in Child Support Enforcement Michael R.
