Jacqueline F. Davis, 2010-07-01. The significant change in public schools over the last two decades warrants a response in how we prepare teachers. This volume is an effort to share the contributors' knowledge, experience, and ideas with colleagues, particularly with novice language teacher educators. The suggestions in the chapters are primarily provided for the teaching methods course but many can be adapted to other education courses or for professional development programs. The first section of the introduction provides a review of issues identified in teacher education, including debates, accountability, and government influence over education. The second section explores teacher educators in the literature, such as issues in their practice and a focus on foreign language teacher educator practice. The third section provides a brief overview of the chapters in the book. Genre in World Language Education

Francis Troyan, 2020-10-29. Ideal for methods and foundational courses in world languages education, this book presents a theoretically informed instructional framework for instruction and assessment of world languages. In line with ACTFL and CEFR standards, this volume brings together scholarship on contextualized task-based performance assessment and instruction with a genre theory and pedagogy to walk through the steps of designing and implementing effective genre-based instruction. Chapters feature step-by-step lesson designs, models of performance assessment, and a wealth of practical and research-based examples on how to make languages explicit to students through a focus on genre. Including sections on Arabic, French, Spanish, Italian, and other major world languages, this book demonstrates how to effectively teach and assess world languages in the classroom. The Art of Teaching Spanish
