Rites in the Spirit Daniel E. Albrecht, 1999-12-01 Rites in the Spirit is a book about spirituality, ritual, and Pentecostal experience. The volume presents a careful and innovative study of Pentecostal practices and experiences. Focusing on the very important but often intriguing worship rites that express the spirituality of Pentecostals, Albrecht discovers that these Pentecostal charismatic rites and their attending sensibilities also function to shape, nurture, authenticate, and even transform the spiritual lives of these Christians. Rites in the Spirit seeks to guide Pentecostals and the charismatically inclined toward self-interpretation and a more nuanced conception of and a deeper appreciation for their Pentecostal experience. The volume also aims to make a sometimes exotic spirituality more accessible and understandable to those who have had limited contact with Pentecostal charismatic forms and expressions.

Vanderwell, 2007-12-17 Many congregations today experience collisions between parents who want to spend time with their children and age segregated church programming as well as between the children worshiping in their pews and the increasing number of seniors in the same pew Among the questions these congregations struggle to address are these Should we try to hold the generations together when we worship Is it even possible Led by pastor and resource developer Howard Vanderwell nine writers pastors teachers worship planners and others serving in specialized ministries offer their reflections on issues congregational leaders need to address as they design their worship ministry In addition numerous sidebars illustrate the diversity of practices in the church today Contributors do not propose easy answers or instant solutions Rather they guide readers as they craft ministries and practices that fit their own community heritage and history Each chapter includes questions for reflection and group discussion and an appendix provides guidelines for small group use The thread that connects these varied contributions is the belief that there is no greater privilege for Christians than worshiping God and there is no better way to do that than as an intergenerational community in which all are important and all encourage and nurture the faith of the others
