Conflict in Europe, 1900-1950 Nupur Chaudhuri,Sandra Trudgen Dawson,2023-10-17 Europe was in turmoil during the first half of the twentieth century The political stability that emanated from nineteenth century political liberalism began to break down reaching climaxes in the Great War the Spanish Civil War and the Second World War Revolutions in Russia and

Spain threatened parliamentary governments and the Armenian genocide that began in 1915 foreshadowed the systematic destruction of European Jews in the 1930s and 1940s Dictators seized power and established authoritarian regimes that stymied democratic expression and censored the press Much of the scholarship on each of the conflicts has tended to focus on the military male and the civilian female binary Women and children experienced every conflict during this tumultuous period as civilians consumers victims exiles and combatants As histories of women and war suggest there are exciting new areas of research and scholarship that resist simplistic binaries Women were not simply civilians or victims They were actors in the minutiae of wars revolutions dictatorships and genocides Children were present in these conflicts and not invisible as many histories suggest They too were actors and often politicized by propagandist literature and sectarian education through their own experiences and the politics of their families This collection seeks to complicate the child adult distinction and examine the experiences of women and children as lenses to view a more collective face of conflict While the volume brings to attention conflicts in Europe the editors acknowledge the global ramifications of the revolutions wars and genocides as well as the multitude of individual experiences This collection seeks to expand understanding of the personal as the political in European conflicts from 1900 1950 We believe the focus on women and children offers a diverse perspective on five tumultuous decades of European history

Making Peace with the Universe Michael Scott Alexander, 2020-11-03 The world's great religious and philosophical traditions often include poignant testimonies of spiritual turmoil and healing Following episodes of harrowing personal crisis including addictions periods of anxiety and panic and reminders of mortality these accounts then also describe pathways to consolation and resolution In Making Peace with the Universe Michael Scott Alexander reads diverse classic religious accounts as masterpieces of therapeutic insight In the company of William James Socrates Muslim legal scholar turned mystic Hamid al Ghazali Chinggis Khan as described by the Daoist monk Qui Chuji and jazz musician and Catholic convert Mary Lou Williams Alexander traces the steps from existential crisis to psychological health He recasts spiritual confessions as case histories of therapy showing how they remain radical and deeply meaningful even in an age of scientific psychology They record the therapeutic affect of spiritual experience testifying to the achievement of psychological well being through the cultivation of an edifying spiritual mood Mixing scholarly learning with episodes from his own skeptical quest Alexander demonstrates how these accounts of private terror and personal triumph offer a model of therapy through spiritual adventure An interdisciplinary consideration of the shared terrain of religion and psychology Making Peace with the Universe offers an innovative view of what spiritual traditions can teach us about finding meaning in the modern world
