Remedies in EU Competition Law Damien Gerard,Assimakis Komninos,2020-07-10 By their nature remedies are central to competition law enforcement and represent the yardstick against which the efficiency of the overall system can be measured Yet very rarely have remedies been treated in a horizontal and comprehensive manner from the combined perspectives of substance process and policy The present volume developed in partnership with the College of Europe s Global Competition Law Centre GCLC provides coherent practical and authoritative commentaries by leading experts from the GCLC s incomparable network The contributions originally presented at the 2019 GCLC annual conference examine remedies to assess the overall effectiveness of competition law enforcement in merger antitrust and State aid matters The overall topic is presented under five headings objectives and limitations of remedies types of remedies in competition law enforcement implementation and process ex post assessment of remedies and policy lessons and national and international approaches The high profile and wide ranging group of authors includes the Director General of the European Commission s competition department lawyers from major international firms and well known economists and academics specialising in competition law With a sharp focus on how to make competition rules work well in today s digital environment this systematic and coherent analysis illuminates an issue that we need to fully grasp and understand in order to make sense of competition policy law and enforcement in the years and decades to come The IMLI Treatise On Global Ocean

Governance David Joseph Attard,Malgosia Fitzmaurice,Alexandros Ntovas,2018-07-04 The 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS remains the cornerstone of global ocean governance However it lacks effective provisions or mechanisms to ensure that all ocean space and related problems are dealt with holistically With seemingly no opportunity for revision due to the Conventions burdensome amendment provisions complementary mechanisms dealing with such aspects of global ocean governance including maritime transport fisheries and marine environmental sustainability have been developed under the aegis of the United Nations and other relevant international organizations This approach is inherently fragmented and unable to achieve sustainable global ocean governance In light of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 14 the IMLI Treatise proposes a new paradigm on the basis of integrated and cross sectoral approach in order to realise a more effective and sustainable governance regime for the oceans This volume focuses on the role of the UN Specialized Agencies towards the development of effective and sustainable ocean governance by looking at the more elaborate mechanisms they developed in order to achieve the desired objectives laid down in UNCLOS From FAO to UNODC the volume examines how they ensure sustainable development and how much coordination exists among them The Report: Myanmar 2017 Oliver Cornock,2017 In recent years trade and investment in Myanmar have soared buoyed by ongoing efforts to liberalise the economy and a successful political transition in November 2015 that saw the National League for Democracy become the country's first civilian led government elected to power in modern history Political reforms have brought significant economic benefits as the US government moved to lift burdensome sanctions that had weighed on investor sentiment and trade growth With the administration now moving to implement a host of domestic reforms loosen internal trade restrictions and draft a new investment law growth is expected to resume apace following a slowdown during the election year The Criminal Justice Periodical Index, 1988

Executive-legislative (Im)balance in the European Union Diane Fromage, Anna Herranz-Surrallés, 2021-02-11 Ten years after the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty has executive predominance in EU related matters disappeared How have executive legislative relations in the EU evolved over a crisis ridden decade from the financial and migration crises to Brexit and the COVID 19 pandemic The Lisbon Treaty could be expected to lead to the re balancing of powers in favour of parliaments for it significantly enhanced the roles of both the European Parliament and national parliaments A decade later the contributions to this edited volume examine for the first time in such an extensive breadth and from a multi level and cross policy perspective whether this has actually materialised They highlight that diverging tendencies may be observed and that important variations over time have occurred depending particularly on the occurrence of crises As stated in the fascinating epilogue by Peter Lindseth University of Connecticut School of Law this is an admirably coherent collective volume whose contributions provide an excellent overview of key aspects of executive legislative relations in the European system since the Treaty of Lisbon This edited volume will hence be of interest to both academics and practitioners interested in future reforms designed at the European and national levels to improve the EU's democratic quality

Comparative Climate Change Litigation: Beyond the Usual Suspects Francesco Sindico, Makane Moïse Mbengue, 2021-01-21 This book is based on the acknowledgment that climate change is a multifaceted challenge that requires action on the part of all stakeholders including civil society and the notion that climate change is at a tipping point with urgent measures needed in the next decade Against this background civil society is turning its attention to the courts as a means to directly influence climate action partly because of the global scepticism towards the progress of global climate action despite the ongoing implementation of the Paris Agreement Focusing on the individual broadly representing civil society the book offers fresh perspectives on climate change litigation While most of the literature on climate change litigation examines the same specific jurisdictions mostly common law countries US and Australia in particular this book also considers specific countries in Asia Africa and Latin America with little or no climate change litigation It explores the reasons for the lack of litigation and discusses what measures should or could be taken to change this situation and push forward climate action Unlike other literature on the subject this book analyses climate change litigation using a scenario based methodology Combining rigorous academic analysis with a practical policy oriented focus the book provides valuable insights for a wide range of stakeholders interested in climate change litigation It appeals to civil society organisations around the world international organisations and law firms interested in climate change litigation Proceedings of IAC-TLEI 2017 group of authors,2017-04-11 International Academic Conference on Teaching Learning and E learning in Budapest Hungary 2017 IAC TLEI 2017 Friday Saturday April 14 15 2017 Immersive Learning Research Network Dennis Beck,Colin Allison,Leonel Morgado,Johanna Pirker,Foad Khosmood,Jonathon Richter,Christian Gütl,2017-06-06 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Third International Conference of the Immersive Learning Network iLRN 2017 held in Coimbra Portugal in June 2017 The proceedings contain 17 full papers together with 4 short papers carefully reviewed and selected from 80 submissions This year s special focus is Honoring Tradition Immersed in the Future Fitness to Plead Ronnie Mackay,Warren Brookbanks,2018-06-14 The law relating to fitness to plead is an increasingly important area of the criminal law While criminalization may be justified whenever an offender commits a sufficiently serious moral wrong requiring that he or she be called to account the doctrine of fitness to plead calls this principle into question in the case of a person who lacks the capacity or ability to participate meaningfully in a criminal trial In light of the emerging focus on capacity based approaches to decision making and the international human rights requirement that the law should treat defendants fairly this volume offers a benchmark for the theory and practice of fitness to plead providing readers with a unique opportunity to consider differing perspectives and debate on the future development and direction of a doctrine which has up till now been under discussed and under researched The fitness to plead rules stand as an exception to notions of public accountability for criminal wrongdoing yet despite the doctrine s long standing function in criminal procedure it has proven complex to apply in practice and has given rise to many varied legislative models and considerable litigation in different jurisdictions Particularly troublesome is the question of what is to be done with someone who has been found unfit to stand trial Here the law is required to balance the need to protect those defendants who are unable to participate effectively in their own trial whether permanently or for a defined period and the need to protect the public from people who may have caused serious social harm as a result of their antisocial behaviour The challenge for law reformers legislators and judges is to create rules that ensure that everyone who can properly be tried is tried while seeking to preserve confidence in the fairness of the legal system by ensuring that people who cannot properly engage in the criminal trial process are not forced to endure it OECD Competition Assessment Reviews: Portugal Volume I - Inland and Maritime Transports and Ports OECD,2018-12-21 Against this backdrop this report analyses Portuguese regulations for road railway and maritime transport and many ancillary services such as vehicle inspection centres as well as Portugal s ports Political Handbook of the World 2018-2019 Tom Lansford,2019-03-19 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2018 2019 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies This comprehensive update will include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years including Elections across Europe Referendum in Ireland Rohingya genocide in Myanmar The Venezuelan dictatorship The renaming of Swaziland to eSwatini Qatar diplomacy changes Historic meeting between the United States and North Korea Establishment of a new governing coalition in Liberia
