Department of Homeland Security Appropriations for 2017 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Homeland Security, 2016 Competition Law, Regulation and SMEs in the Asia-Pacific Michael T Schaper, 2017-03-09 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs account for more than 90 per cent of all businesses in the Asia Pacific region an area which is rapidly updating its competition laws and regulations to encourage greater entrepreneurship and open dynamic economies Yet SMEs are almost invisible when those competition policies and laws are developed and enforced SMEs are often quite different businesses than large multinational corporations but their nature significance and characteristics are often overlooked This book seeks to rectify the relative neglect in research and policy discussions on the role of the SME sector in competition policy and law Drawing on contributions from a wide range of competition regulators lawyers academics consultants and advisers to the SME sector it addresses such important issues as perceptions and views of small businesses about competition law regulator engagement and education of the SME sector the link between competition law and economic growth franchising SMEs and competition law issues in enforcing competition law against SMEs the role of Chinese family firms trade professional and industry associations country case studies from Vietnam Singapore Indonesia Malaysia China South Korea Hong Kong SAR Japan and the Pacific Islands Handbook on the Governance and Politics of Migration Emma Carmel, Katharina Lenner, Regine Paul, 2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook sets out a conceptual and analytical framework for the critical appraisal of migration governance Global and interdisciplinary in scope the chapters are organised across six key themes conceptual debates categorisations of migration governance regimes processes spaces of migration governance and mobilisations around it The International Law on Foreign Investment M. Sornarajah, 2021-07 The only work that goes beyond the rules of law looking at the origins and conflicts that shaped the law Solidarity and Rule of Law Teresa Russo, Anna Oriolo, Gaspare Dalia, 2023-07-12 This book offers an authentic and original perspective on the principles of solidarity and rule of law that are variously interconnected and increasingly invoked in international relations and affairs especially in the context of the European Union where they are among the founding values common to all Member States The innovative approach the authors adopt consists in the joint reading of these two principles within the broader framework of EU security thus offering a new interpretation and fertile ground for further research Divided into four parts the authors consider EU security to be linked to the implementation of both these principles particularly with regard to EU stabilization and enlargement to the Western Balkans cross border security migration and asylum management criminal justice and human rights and police and judicial cooperation The contributions of eminent scholars international experts and practitioners are the book's greatest strength In addition it offers a valuable new perspective on the study of contemporary issues affecting the Western Balkans but also all Member States and the Union itself Therefore the book is an essential resource for students and scholars of EU law but also for lawyers and professionals involved in criminal proceedings or working in the field of human rights Kenya Gazette ,1955-08-30 The Kenya Gazette is an official publication of the government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Controlling Immigration Through Criminal Law Gian Luigi Gatta, Valsamis Mitsilegas, Stefano Zirulia, 2021-01-14 This book provides a systematic and comprehensive overview of the increased role of criminal law in managing migration from a European domestic and comparative law perspective The contributors critically engage with the current trends leading to the criminalisation of irregular migrants asylum seekers and those who engage in humanitarian smuggling and the national and common policies calling for a broader use of criminal law measures The chapters explore the measures used to protect borders and their impact in terms of effectiveness and their ability to strike a fair balance between security and the protection of human rights The contributors to the book cover a range of disciplines within law human rights and criminology resulting in a broad understanding of the issues at play , Immersive Learning Research Network Dennis Beck,Colin Allison,Leonel Morgado,Johanna Pirker,Foad Khosmood,Jonathon Richter,Christian Gütl,2017-06-06 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Third International Conference of the Immersive Learning Network iLRN 2017 held in Coimbra Portugal in June 2017 The proceedings contain 17 full papers together with 4 short papers carefully reviewed and selected from 80 submissions This year s special focus is Honoring Tradition Immersed in the Future Artists and Markets in Music Cameron M. Weber,Ying Zhen,J.J. Arias,2023-08-30 This monograph is an innovative examination of the political economy of music It integrates original economic theories and empirical research to shed light on the economic and social forces shaping music and society today Interactive relationships such as the importance of entrepreneurship serendipity and authenticity will be explored in artist subjective determinations of success In particular this book deeply explores the mental health of musicians and creative destruction during the covid era copyrights in music markets and an evaluation of the importance of entrepreneurship and brand marketing in the life of musical artists The monograph contributes empirical research to underexplored areas in the cultural economics of music such as the proposed musical production function by Samuel Cameron Routledge 2015 and the concept of distinction in cultural production by Pierre Bourdieu Routledge 1984 2010 as uniquely applied with examples from the covid era Readers will benefit from this easy to understand interdisciplinary exploration of the music industry with a focus on the United States and the political economy of music during the covid era Most cultural economics is focused on Europe and Asia so this emphasis on the United States will be of interest This book will be a beneficial reference work for researchers and will find an audience among music professionals and artists Academics and non academics experts and novices interested in music and political economy will also find value in Artists and Markets in Music Labour Law and Social Protection in a Globalized World Jan Pichrt,Kristina Koldinská,2018-09-07 The protection of jobs and labour law standards achieved by employees in the past has been under pressure from neoliberalization forces for many years The focused perspectives evident in this original collection of essays go a long way toward clearly defining where labour law and social security law must set their sights in order to preserve fair and productive employer employee relations in the new world of work Distinguished researchers study the changing realities confronting the labour market in public policy as well as in industrial relations Issues and topics include the following integration of immigrants into industrial relations the social situation of migrant workers new phenomena brought by the digital age temporary agency work harmonizing family and working lives sport and labour law the role of European Works Councils and social and labour reforms Throughout this book the contributors emphasize the changing role of the state and reform agendas Although the central focus is on Europe there is an abundance of comparative detail allowing for global application As a matchless up to date overview and analysis of how new and emerging forms of employment and industrial relations
