Evita Burned Down Our Pavilion Timothy Abraham, James Coyne, 2021-05-27 A highly entertaining read deftly melding social history with sporting memoir and travelogue Mail on Sunday A history of Latin America through cricket Cricket was the first sport played in almost every country of the Americas earlier than football rugby or baseball In 1877 when England and Australia played the inaugural Test match at the MCG Uruguay and Argentina were already ten years into their derby played across the River Plate The visionary cricket historian Rowland Bowen said that during the highpoint of cricket in South America between the two World Wars the continent could have provided the next Test nation In Buenos Aires where British engineers merchants and meatpackers flocked to make their fortune the standard of cricket was high towering figures like Lord Hawke and Plum Warner took star studded teams of Test cricketers to South America only to be beaten by Argentina A combined Argentine Brazilian and Chilean team took on the first class counties in England in 1932 The notion of Brazilians and Mexicans playing T20 at the Maracana or the Azteca today is not as far fetched as it sounds But Evita Burned Down Our Pavilion is also a social history of grit industry and nation building in the New World West Indian fruit workers battled yellow fever and brutal management to carve out cricket fields next to the railway lines in Costa Rica Cricket was the favoured sport of Chile s Nitrate King Emperors in Brazil and Mexico used the game to curry favour with Europe The notorious Pablo Escobar even had a shadowy connection to the game The fate of cricket in South America was symbolised by Eva Peron ordering the burning down of the Buenos Aires Cricket Club pavilion when the club refused to hand over their premises to her welfare scheme Cricket journalists Timothy Abraham and James Coyne take us on a journey to discover this largely untold story of cricket s fate in the world s most colourful continent Fascinating and surprising Evita Burned Down Our Pavilion is a valuable addition to cricketing and social history

The System Jeff Benedict,Armen Keteyian,2013-09-17 A Shelf Awareness Best Book of the Year NCAA football is big business Every Saturday millions of people file into massive stadiums or tune in on television as athlete students give everything they ve got to make their team a success Billions of dollars now flow into the game But what is the true cost The players have no share in the oceans of money And once the lights go down the glitter doesn t shine so brightly Filled with mind blowing details of major NCAA football scandals with stops at Ohio State Tennessee Texas Tech Missouri BYU LSU Texas A M and many more The System explores and exposes the complex and perhaps broken machine that churns behind the glamour of college football With a New Afterword Management Strategies in Athletic Training, 5E Konin, Jeff,2019 Management Strategies in Athletic Training Fifth Edition prepares students and athletic trainers to address the many administrative and managerial challenges they will face in an increasingly complex and changing health care environment

Coaching Michael D. Sabock,Ralph J. Sabock,2017-01-05 Coaching A Realistic Perspective is the ideal textbook for anyone entering the coaching profession of any sport More than detailing the duties and tasks of a coach this book explores the often overlooked issues and responsibilities that go hand in hand with coaching relationships among players parents and fans ethical and moral issues and controversies off season housekeeping duties and concerns particular to head and assistant coaches as well as single and married coaches Similar to its previous edition the eleventh edition includes end of chapter discussion questions to help inspire debate over common coaching issues This edition has been updated to reflect the impact of social media on the coaching profession including how it can be used in good positive ways and how it can be detrimental to coaches and athletes if not used properly It also features updated material on the issue of hazing a huge concern today in all levels of athletics
