Preaching to People in Pain Matthew D. Kim, 2021-05-18 Offering an important corrective to a pain averse culture that celebrates individualism and success veteran preacher and teacher Matthew Kim encourages pastors to preach on the painful issues their congregations face Through vulnerability and self disclosure pastors can help their congregants share their suffering in community for the purpose of healing and transformation The book includes stories shares relevant Scripture texts imparting biblical wisdom and offers best practices for preaching on specific topics Each chapter ends with discussion questions and a sample sermon

The Preaching of the Third Crusade (1187-1192) Alexander Marx, 2024-12-23 This book delivers the first substantial study of the preaching of the Third Crusade 1187-92 It assembles c 200 sermon texts and c 100 manuscripts to understand the explosive dynamic of mobilization in the Latin West Dealing with the essential fact that a genre called crusade sermon did not exist it develops methodological devices for identifying sermons relevant for the crusading purpose The book contests thus the modern historiography which has placed too much trust in the few chronicle reports However its fruitful blending of crusading preaching exegesis manuscript studies and intellectual history has much to offer beyond crusade studies

Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must, 2017-08-21 In Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must examines seventeenth century Huguenot sermons to study the development of French Reformed confessional identity under the Edict of Nantes Of key concern is how a Huguenot hybrid identity was formulated by balancing a strong sense of religious particularism with an enthusiastic political loyalism Must argues that sermons were an integral part of asserting this unique confessional position in both their preached and printed forms To demonstrate this Must explores a variety of sermon themes to access the range of images and arguments that preachers employed to articulate a particular vision of their community as a religious minority in France

Market Street Pastor Eric Hoke,2024-09-26 Pastors want to work hard to provide for their families be radically generous and build a legacy of ministry that they can be proud of In the modern ministry vocation the only way to do this is to expand vocational options and earn additional income outside of the church The problem is that pastors have only ever worked in churches and have no idea how to message their valuable skills in a way that makes sense to hiring managers in the open marketplace As a result they are paralyzed and frustrated because they know that they could break into the workforce earn more money and meet community members outside the church but don t know where to start on the job hunt Eric Hoke understands how difficult it is to change industries and move from being a pastor to a marketplace professional because he did it in New York City where he spent ten years living and ministering as a church planter while also working in Manhattan for profits Hoke has helped thousands of others to do the same through a proven five step process that helps pastors break into the marketplace and build a ministry of sustainability

In Your Eyes I See My Words Pope Francis,2020-10-27 In Your Eyes I See My Words Volume 3 brings together the homilies and speeches of Archbishop Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio from 2009 through his election as Pope Francis on March 13 2013 These writings provide an intimate glimpse into the theological philosophical scientific and cultural educational currents that forged the steady loving and nurturing leadership style with which Bergoglio guided the Church in Buenos Aires That style has now done the same for the Church from Rome a Church rocked by financial and moral scandals and a world shaken by the first global pandemic in a century These writings were kneaded a word he uses when talking about the work of molding the souls and character of youth and seminarians in the relationships he formed in his bus rides to work and in his intense contact with all segments of the population Because of that careful and prayerful process of kneading they have found their full development in Bergoglio's writing as Pope Francis especially in Evangelii gaudium November 2013 Gaudete et exsultate On the call to sanctity March 2018 and his encyclical Laudato si May 2015 In this final volume of Bergoglio's homilies and papers we meet European theologians and thinkers such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Henri de Lubac and Bergoglio's Uruguayan philosopher and friend Methol Ferr the literary figure Miguel ngel Asturias and Enrique Santos Disc polo a singer and composer of tangos that decry corruption In a prophetic conclusion the last homily of this volume is an outline of the roadmap Pope Francis has followed throughout his papacy one defined by ongoing love and care for God's people and that seeks to spread God's merciful anointing to those living on the margins of life The Oxford Handbook of Early Evangelicalism Jonathan Yeager, 2022 Contexts Churches and movements The culture of evangelicalism Personalities Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium American Methodist Worship Karen B. Westerfield Tucker, 2011-04-27 This book offers a comprehensive examination of Methodist practice tracing its evolution from the earliest days up to the present Using liturgical texts as well as written accounts in popular and private sources Karen Westerfield Tucker investigates the various rites and seasons of worship in Methodism and examines them in relation to American society ReCreatable Kevin Scott, 2014-01-24 ReCreatable begins with the story of a glass baking dish the delectable aroma of tantalizing brownies and an unseen defect that turns the promise of something delicious into a minor disaster leaving glass fragments and brownies irretrievably intermingled Both the dish and brownies are irrevocably lost The implications for us are inescapable created by God to reflect his glory and for his pleasure we have been broken by sin to the point that we are completely useless to accomplish the purpose for which we were made But unlike the shattered brownie dish that gets discarded as worthless God takes the shards of our lives and does the miraculous He does not simply fit us back together He takes those splinters of our destruction and uses them to re create us complete restored redeemed and fitted to do and be all that he ever intended for us ReCreatable leads us progressively through the impact of the creative genius of God in our lives It points us to the reality of restored relationships the resurrection of our role as true reflectors of God s glory and the revolutionary life that can be ours when we learn to be true disciples re created to live well for God Reading the Margins Michael J Gilmour,2024-09-24 The Bible and theology are contested spaces battlegrounds where participants guard entrenched beliefs against perceived threats But literature observes novelist Salman Rushdie opens the universe It expands what we perceive and understand and ultimately what we are Writers make our world feel larger and more inclusive When other forces push in the direction of narrowness bigotry tribalism cultism and war fiction encourages understanding sympathy and identification with others Reading the Margins invites readers to immerse themselves in imaginary worlds and to pursue visions of justice and compassion Whether stories about poverty empire war or the environment the writers considered raise moral questions and often in the process even unwittingly deepen our understanding of biblical calls for kindness and mercy Reading the Margins offers a kind of commentary on biblical ethics Using Matthew s Beatitudes and sheep and goats parable as an organizing principle Gilmour argues there is much to learn about Jesus s peacemakers and call to feed the hungry from aspirational fiction and poetry A Time for Sorrow Donna Petter,Lindsay Wilson,Rhys Bezzant,Emmett Price,2021-10-05 Six scholars trace the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments in A Time for Sorrow Recovering the Practice of Lament in the Life of the Church reflecting on the theological significance of lament affirming the ongoing relevance of lamentation in the life of the church and exploring its biblical roots and application in church practice In a church era dominated by positive thinking and slick upbeat worship even mentioning the word lamentation is apt to cause a dismissive disinterested shrug But Christians still suffer and this suffering is left mute when the church fails to integrate biblical lament in contemporary church practice A Time for Sorrow looks to address this by recovering the biblical practice of bringing our pain before God in an honest and faithful manner In this multiauthor work learn about the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments reflect on the theological significance of lament and finish with thoughts on lament and pastoral practice today Handbook of Dutch Church History Herman J. Selderhuis,2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method The user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations Also many source texts are integrated in the narration Theses texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments The Christian Evangelist ,1905 Missions and Empire Norman Etherington,2005-07-14 The explosive expansion of Christianity in Africa and Asia during the last two centuries constitutes one of the most remarkable cultural transformations in the history of mankind Because it coincided with the spread of European economic and political hegemony it tends to be taken for granted that Christian missions went hand in hand with imperialism and colonial conquest In this book historians survey the relationship between Christian missions and the British Empire from the seventeenth century to the 1960s and treat the subject thematically rather than regionally or chronologically Many of these themes are treated at length for the first time relating the work of missions to language medicine anthropology and decolonization Other important chapters focus on the difficult relationship between missionaries and white settlers women and mission and the neglected role of the indigenous evangelists who did far more than European or North American missionaries to spread the Christian religion belying the image of Christianity as the white man s religion Law, Text, Terror Ian Ward,2009-04-16 Ian Ward places contemporary political and jurisprudential responses to terrorism within a broader literary cultural and historical context Renaissance in Italy: The Catholic reaction John Addington Symonds,1907
