Preaching That Empowers God's People:

God's Empowered People Steven M. Fettke, 2010-12-15 Professional ministers and their work as church leaders have dominated church and pastoral ministry studies. Lay ministry studies have been neglected. In the local church, lay ministries are often defined solely by their voluntary service in the local church and even then are regarded as secondary to the work of the professional minister leading the local church. This study proposes that the word minister should be applied to all believers and that professional ministers and their ministries should serve the larger group doing ministry. The laity. Lay ministry should not be understood only as that service done in the local church but should be understood as a call received and obeyed by the laity to do the work of ministry in their work places and their neighborhoods as well as their local churches. Following Amos Yong's theology of disability and the formation of the L Arche communities found throughout the world, this God's Empowered People will show how the local church can welcome all in Christ's name into a community of the Spirit in which people are loved and respected for who they are. From such a welcoming, loving, and respectful community can come people of varying abilities who discover their special gifts of ministry, then take their gifts into the work world, market place, and neighborhoods to do the work of ministry in Christ's name. They will be able to go places and do things no professional minister could go or do yet still need the professional minister to help prepare them to do the work of ministry. Thus professional and lay ministries are not competitive but complementary. In such a community of professional and lay ministries operating cooperatively, all have the opportunity to express wisely their gifts in their arenas of calling and influence.

Preaching and the Mission of God David R. Fields, 2023-03-16 In an age divided and skeptical when the true Christian story is often unknown or deeply misunderstood, how do we even begin to share the news of Jesus? And how might preaching in a local church both equip God's people for their missional task and speak in a way that a weary world can hear and even rejoice in? The answer begins with seeing the Bible as a document developed in a missionary context for a missionary purpose. This book starts there. It begins by examining the Bible as a document of mission that needs to be interpreted through a missional lens. It then moves to offer a mission-shaped vision for preaching and the needed tools for contextualizing the gospel in our post-Christendom setting. You'll find short, accessible chapters with personal reflection questions as well as three group discussion sections ideal for either a classroom setting, a preaching team in a local church, or a preacher's guild.

Empowering Ministry Donald P. Smith, 1996-01-01 Over a period of years, Donald Smith probed, analyzed, interpreted, and reinterpreted data pertaining to what makes for effective ministry. Through all his research, one fact kept emerging: Pastors who focus on empowering others are recognized as the most effective in their ministry. Empowering Ministry distills the best information about cultivating an effective ministry stance from the voices of several hundred highly effective congregational leaders, offering readers the benefit of many lifetimes of pastoral experience. Smith deals extensively with how pastors empower others as well as with how they have been and continue to be empowered themselves. He also discusses the requisite skills needed for motivating and energizing others The book offers a realistic look at life in the ministerial pressure cooker and confronts the issues of stress and burnout Specific steps the reader can take to grow and nurture an effective ministry are included Empowering Ministry is for pastors who are enriching their work for the seminary student preparing for ministry and for anyone working closely with their pastors in a quest for maximum pastoral effectiveness

Spirit Empowered Preaching Mozart Dor PhD, 2020-11-24 Although there are several preaching books today there are only handfuls if any that address the centrality of the Holy Spirit in preaching A hindrance to preaching in the twenty first century is over intellectualization of the Gospel After receiving a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Preaching I thought I was now ready to prepare and preach an effective sermon that will draw any audience to Christ I told myself I am ready I have attained and I can double the size of any given church with my vast knowledge on preaching Little did I know that my degrees from the best schools around the world were not sufficient to preach the whole counsel of God's Word I have come to realize that clever persuasions of men do not change lives The name of Jesus through the power of the Holy Ghost does The secret ingredient in preparing and preaching Spirit empowered messages is the power of the Holy Spirit Ministers of the Gospel must not depend upon natural means to produce supernatural results but must use supernatural means to produce supernatural results Paul said to the Thessalonians Our gospel did not come to you in word only but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance 1 Thess 1:5 The church is in desperate need of revival Sinners are urgently in need of the Savior and only the Spirit of God can convict sinners of their sins and bring revival to the nations Consequently the goal of this book is not to produce another great preaching book but to help students and ministers prepare and present effective Holy Spirit empowered sermons to their audience The book seeks to instruct readers on the importance of the Holy Spirit in preaching the Word of God while laying the foundational building blocks of effective preaching This book is for both beginning ministers who are just starting ministry and for veteran ministers who would like to brush up on their preaching and teaching skills in order to become better Spirit empowered ministers of the Gospel May God bless you and speak mightily through you with clarity urgency fervency and power as you endeavor to preach Spirit empowered messages to a dying generation
