Emory University offers two distinct and integrated academic pathways for entering first-year students. Students apply to begin their Emory University experience at either Emory College of Arts and Sciences or Oxford College. Each college offers a unique learning environment and all students graduate with an undergraduate degree from Emory University, a transformative liberal arts and internationally recognized research institution.

Emory College of Arts and Sciences

Located in Atlanta, Georgia, with an undergraduate enrollment of approximately 5,400 students, Emory College of Arts and Sciences is led by a faculty of trailblazing scholars and dedicated teachers, who combine the excellent teaching of a traditional liberal arts college with the resources and opportunities of a major research university. As juniors, students can continue to pursue their academic majors in the Emory College of Arts and Sciences or the Neil Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing, or apply to join the Goizueta Business School.
