Rhodes University Application Handbook For 2014:

Routledge International Handbook of Women's Sexual and Reproductive Health Jane M. Ussher, Joan C.

Chrisler, Janette Perz, 2019-09-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Women's Sexual and Reproductive Health is the authoritative reference work on important leading edge developments in the domains of women's sexual and reproductive health. The handbook adopts a life cycle approach to examine key milestones and events in women's sexual and reproductive health. Contributors drawn from a range of disciplines including psychology, medicine, nursing and midwifery, sociology, public health, women's studies and indigenous studies explore issues through three main lenses: the biopsychosocial model, feminist perspectives, international multidisciplinary perspectives that acknowledge the intersection of identities in women's lives. The handbook presents an authoritative review of the field with a focus on state of the art work encouraging future research and policy development in women's sexual and reproductive health. Finally, the handbook will inform health care providers about the latest research and clinical developments including women's experiences of both normal and abnormal sexual and reproductive functions. Drawing upon international expertise from leading academics and clinicians in the field, this is essential reading for scholars and students interested in women's reproductive health. Africa's Radicalisms and Conservatisms, 2022-10-31 Volume II of Africa's Radicalisms and Conservatisms continues the broad themes of radicalisms and conservatisms that were examined in volume I. Like volume I, the essays examine why the two isms of radicalisms and conservatisms should not be viewed as mere irreconcilable conceptual tools with which to categorize or structure knowledge. The volume demonstrates that these concepts are intertwined, have multiple and diverse meanings as perceived and understood from different disciplinary vantage points, hence the deliberate pluralization of the terms. The twenty-two essays in the volume show what happens when one juxtaposes the two concepts and when different peoples' lived experiences of politics, pop culture, democracy, liberalism, the environment, colonialism, migration, identities and knowledge etc. across the length and breadth of Africa are brought to bear on our understandings of these two particularisms. Contributors are Adesoji Oni, Admire M. Nyamwanza, Akin Tella, Akinpelu Ayokunnu, Oyekunle Bamidele, Omotunde Alabi, Charles Nkem Okolie, Craig Calhoun, Diana Ekor, Ofana Edwin, Etieyibo Folusho, Ayodeji Gabriel, Akinbode Godwin, Oboh Joseph, C. Later Greek Epic and the Latin Literary Tradition Katerina Carvounis, Sophia Papaioannou, Giampiero Scafoglio, 2022-11-07 The volume offers an innovative and systematic exploration of the diverse ways in which Later Greek Epic interacts with the Latin literary tradition Taking as a starting point the premise that it is probable for the Greek epic poets of the Late Antiquity to have been familiar with leading works of Latin poetry either in the original or in translation the contributions in this book pursue a new form of intertextuality in which the leading epic poets of the Imperial era Quintus of Smyrna Triphiodorus Nonnus and the author of the Orphic Argonautica engage with a range of models in inventive complex and often covert ways Instead of asking in other words whether Greek authors used Latin models we ask how they engaged with them and why they opted for certain choices and not for others Through sophisticated discussions it becomes clear that intertexts are usually systems that combine ideology cultural traditions and literary aesthetics in an inextricable fashion The book will prove that Latin literature far from being distinct from the Greek epic tradition of the imperial era is an essential indeed defining component within a common literary and

Ugandan English Christiane Meierkord, Bebwa Isingoma, Saudah Namyalo, 2016-10-20 Ugandan English is a variety that has scarcely been noticed in past research This timely volume brings together African and European scholars in a first ever collection of articles that offer comprehensive discussions of the historical and present day sociolinguistics of English in Uganda and fine grained analyses of the structural characteristics of and attitudes to this hitherto largely unknown variety Using rich archive corpus and interview data as well as ethnographic and observational methods the various contributions paint a comprehensive picture of Ugandan English as distinct from other East African Englishes and as characterized by nativisation despite a still strong exonormative orientation reflecting the modern nation's status as a post protectorate under the influence of globalisation. Apart from advancing our understanding of Ugandan English itself, the individual chapters contribute to theoretical debates on language contact and variation as regards the influence of substrate languages, founder populations, language ideologies and socio-economic factors. Public-Private Partnerships in Emerging Economies Augustine Edobor Arimoro, 2020-10-29. Over the years, a shortage of funds has resulted in a huge deficit in government budgets for infrastructure, especially in developing economies. It is no longer feasible for governments to bear the entire burden of funding public infrastructure. Given that an inadequate supply of public infrastructure poses a challenge for the economic development of any country, partnerships with the private sector to fund public infrastructure procurement has started to be relied on as an alternative to traditional public procurement. Public-Private Partnerships are an arrangement that allow private entities to fund, design, manage and operate public infrastructure for a term in exchange for the payment of tolls by users, or the government may well be the solution to the infrastructure crisis in many developing economies. This book examines the role of law in the adoption, implementation and regulation of Public-Private Partnership in selected developing economies including Brazil, India, Nigeria and South Africa, to address how to deal with overlapping laws and how the law can protect assets invested in PPP in order to attract private sector interests in infrastructure financing in developing markets, showing how law can be used to create, sustain and promote PPP frameworks that take into account local circumstances in developing economies. Recarbonizing global soils - A technical manual of recommended sustainable soil management Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Intergovernmental Technical Panel on Soils, 2021-09-08. During the last decades, soil organic carbon (SOC) attracted the attention of a much wider array of specialists beyond agriculture and soil science as it was proven to be one of the most crucial components of the earth's climate system which has a great potential to be managed by humans. Soils as a carbon pool are one of the key factors in several Sustainable Development Goals, in particular Goal 15: Protect, restore and promote sustainable use of terrestrial ecosystems, sustainably manage forests, combat desertification and halt and reverse land degradation and halt biodiversity loss, with the SOC stock being explicitly cited in Indicator 15.3.1. This technical manual is the first attempt to gather in a standardized format the existing data on the impacts of the main soil management practices on SOC content in a wide array of environments, including the advantages, drawbacks and constraints. This manual presents different sustainable soil management (SSM) practices at different scales and in different contexts, supported by case studies that have been shown with quantitative data to have a positive effect on SOC stocks and successful experiences of SOC sequestration in practical field applications. Volume 3 includes a total of 49 practices that have a direct impact on SOC sequestration and maintenance in cropland, grassland, integrated systems and farming approaches. Histories of Violence Brad Evans, Terrell Carver, 2017-01-15. While there is a tacit appreciation that freedom from violence will lead to more prosperous relations among peoples violence continues to be deployed for various political and social ends Yet the problem of violence still defies neat description subject to many competing interpretations Histories of Violence offers an accessible yet compelling examination of the problem of violence as it appears in the corpus of canonical figures from Hannah Arendt to Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault to Slavoj Žižek who continue to influence and inform contemporary political philosophical sociological cultural and anthropological study Written by a team of internationally renowned experts this is an essential interrogation of post war critical thought as it relates to violence Building Knowledge in Higher Education Christine Winberg, Sioux

McKenna, Kirstin Wilmot, 2020-05-27 From pressures to become economically efficient to calls to act as an agent of progressive social change higher education is facing a series of challenges There is an urgent need for a rigorous and sophisticated research base to support the informed development of practices Yet studies of educational practices in higher education remain theoretically underdeveloped and segmented by discipline and country Building Knowledge in Higher Education illustrates how Legitimation Code Theory is bringing research together from across the disciplinary map and enabling practical change in a rigorously theorized way The volume addresses both students and educators Part I explores ways of supporting student achievement from STEM to the arts from introductory courses to doctoral training and from using new digital media to reflective writing Part II focuses on academic staff development in higher education reaching from curriculum design to pedagogic practices All chapters focus on issues of contemporary relevance to higher education showing how Legitimation Code Theory enables these issues to be understood and practices improved Building Knowledge in Higher Education brings together internationally renowned scholars in higher education studies academic development academic literacies and sociology with some of the brightest new researchers The volume significantly extends understandings of teaching and learning in changing higher education contexts and so contributes to educational research and practice It will be essential reading not only to scholars and students in these fields but also to scholars and educators in higher education more generally The Bright Side of Shame Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2019-04-25

Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
