

THE MEANING OF MOTIVATION

- Motivation is a basic psychological process. Motivation is one of the most frequently researched topics in business world. It's the result of the interaction between an individual and a situation. Today, virtually all people - practitioners and scholars - have their own definition of motivation.
- Usually one or more of the following words are included in the definition: "desires," "wants," "wishes," "aims," "goals," "needs," "drives," "motives," and "incentives." Technically, the term "motivation" can be traced to the Latin-word 'mover', which means "to move."
- We define motivation as the processes that account for an individual's intensity, direction, and persistence of effort toward attaining a goal.
