Transculturating Auto/Biography Rosalia Baena, 2013-10-18 Rosalia Baena's theoretically challenging analytical volume of essays explores the diversity of shapes that transcultural life writing takes demonstrating how it has become one of the most dynamic and productive literary forms of self inscription and self representation Expanding much of the contemporary criticism on life writing which tends to centre on content the essays highlight that reading contemporary forms of life writing from a literary perspective is a rich field of critical intervention that has been overlooked because of recent cultural studies concerns with material issues To read life writing as primarily cultural texts undercuts much of its value as a complex dynamic of cultural production where aesthetic concerns and the choice and manipulation of form serve as signifying aspects to experiences and subjectivities This book was previously published as a special issue of Prose Studies Hispanic Immigrant Literature Nicolás Kanellos, 2011-07-01 Immigration has been one of the basic realities of life for Latino communities in the United States since the nineteenth century It is one of the most important themes in Hispanic literature and it has given rise to a specific type of literature while also defining what it means to be Hispanic in the United States Immigrant literature uses predominantly the language of the homeland it serves a population united by that language irrespective of national origin and it solidifies and furthers national identity The literature of immigration reflects the reasons for emigrating records both orally and in writing the trials and tribulations of immigration and facilitates adjustment to the new society while maintaining links with the old society Based on an archive assembled over the past two decades by author Nicolás Kanellos's Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Heritage project this comprehensive study is one of the first to define this body of work Written and recorded by people from Mexico Cuba Puerto Rico the Caribbean and Central and South America the texts presented here reflect the dualities that have characterized the Hispanic immigrant experience in the United States since the mid nineteenth century set always against a longing for homeland British Immigration to the United States, 1776-1914 William E Van Vugt, 2020-06-29 This four volume reset edition collects immigrants letters immigration guides newspaper articles county history biographies and promotional and advisory pamphlets published by immigrants and travellers land and railroad companies British Immigration to the United States, 1776-1914, Volume 1 William E van Vugt, 2017-09-29 This four volume reset edition collects immigrants letters immigration guides newspaper articles county history biographies and promotional and advisory pamphlets published by immigrants and travellers land and railroad companies The Routledge Introduction to Auto/biography in Canada Sonja Boon, Laurie McNeill, Julie Rak, Candida Rifkind, 2022-12-29 The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada explores the exciting world of nonfiction writing about the self designed to give teachers and students the tools they need to study both canonical and lesser known works The volume introduces important texts and contexts for interpreting life narratives demonstrates the conceptual tools necessary to understand what life narratives are and how they work and offers an historical overview of key moments in Canadian auto biography Not sure what life writing in Canada is or how to study it This critical introduction covers the tools and approaches you require in order to undertake your own interpretation of life writing texts You will encounter nonfictional writing about individual lives and experiences including biography autobiography letters diaries comics poetry plays and memoirs The volume includes case studies to provide examples of how to study and research life narratives and toolkits to help you apply what you learn The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada provides instructors and students with the contexts and the critical tools to discover the power of life writing and the skills to study any kind of nonfiction from Canada and around the world The Making of Modern Immigration Patrick J.

Hayes,2012-02-13 Combining the insight of two dozen expert contributors to examine key figures events and policies over 200 years of U S immigration history this work illuminates the foundations of the ethnic and socioeconomic makeup of our nation The two volume The Making of Modern Immigration An Encyclopedia of People and Ideas is organized around a series of four dozen in depth essays on specific aspects of American immigration history since the founding of the Republic This encyclopedia addresses the major historical themes and contemporary research trends related to U S immigration canvassing all the major policy endeavors on immigration in the last two centuries In addition to documenting immigration policy the contributors devote extensive attention to the historiography of immigration supplementing theories with cutting edge sociological data Not content with providing a comprehensive overview of immigration history however the work also offers probing investigations of key figures behind the ideas that have shaped the nation s self understanding Taken as a whole this seminal work lifts out the personalities and policies that surround the composition of America s national identity illuminating the past as a series of lessons for the future Gender and Immigration Gregory A. Kelson,Debra L. DeLaet,1999-03

Women and men migrate across international boundaries at roughly the same rate Yet most scholarship assumes that international migration results primarily from the labor migration of male workers When international female migration is acknowledged the focus is almost exclusively on women in the low wage labor sector of the global economy Gender and Immigration challenges this outlook by examining the diverse and complex ways in which women in a variety of occupational and social categories experience international relocation Written by experts and policymakers in the field the timely essays collected here explore whether international migration provides women with opportunities for liberation from the subordinate gender roles of their countries of origin Or do migrant women face both traditional and new forms of subordination and discrimination in their host societies Exploring the experiences of a broad range of women from unskilled workers on the U S Mexican border and Filipino mail order brides to Indian American motel owners Asian businesswomen and Russian immigrants to Israel Gender and Immigration offers a much needed corrective to the long standing invisibility of women in international migration research The Algerian War in French/Algerian Writing Jonathan Lewis,2018-10-05 This book will enlighten readers on the importance of literature in contributing to historical knowledge Will provide readers
