affect the ministry of a church and even prevent revival in people's lives. Sorge reveals why comparison of our ministry and spiritual gifts to that of our fellow believers is to be avoided at all costs so that we do not hamstring God's plan for our growth and the accomplishment of His purposes. This is a must read for leaders of all churches great and small and anyone who wants the peace that comes with a life free of envy. Crucible, The by Arthur Miller (MAXnotes), MAXnotes offer a fresh look at masterpieces of literature presented in a lively and interesting fashion. The book to serve as an antidote to such ill informed thinking before it becomes a part of the cultural commonsense much the way the manufactured realities of high stakes testing, standardization, and police guarded schools have become normative. It is urgent to learn to accurately read reality in a world in which language and discourse are being resignified to confuse people and turn reality into a board game, a world which large corporations and global financial powers play the role of the old mythological gods, creators of dogmas and flamboyant realities that they want us to submit and worship. This volume is an outcome of an important political critical transformative pedagogical project that challenges the lethal consequences of the impact of neoliberal policies in education. We need to welcome Paraskeva and LaVallee's contribution since it offers a crucial tool to help us articulate accurately a critical diagnosis as well as solutions for a more just and democratic public education that cultivates humanity.
