

My Family Values

2 pages | 445 words

My family provided me with a loving and supportive environment. I have been very blessed to have so many positive influences in my life. My parents & my grandmother have always told me that failure is not an option and to always dream big. My family culture has taught me to be kind, passionate, and respectful of others. I come from a family of educators who are very passionate about their field of work. My grandmother has been a school teacher for over 25 years. She returned to college and attained her Master's degree, in spite of facing many obstacles. She has always stressed to me that getting a great education is key and important. She is an awesome role model and has been a huge positive influence in my life when it comes to my education. I always go above and beyond to make sure that I do my best in school. My parents have taught me to always be of good moral character and to value myself and others. They both strongly believe in paying it forward & giving back to those who are less fortunate. My mother was a youth recreational volunteer cheer coach for 5 years. She worked with high risk kids after school providing a positive environment for them. She made me realize over the years that some of the smallest things we take for granted could make a huge difference in another person's life. My mom showed me what it is to be a compassionate leader. Both of my parents have taught me that hard work does pay off. It is because of them that I have a very strong work ethic. I was raised by a mother that wanted all of her children to be involved in something positive, which would result in making lifetime memories, new relations and discovering doors of opportunities. My parents always made sure we stayed involved in multiple community activities, helping others in any way that we could. We had a yearly Christmas family tradition and we would volunteer to sing at various nursing homes during the holiday season. Some of the elderly would sing along with us. The smiles on the residents' faces were priceless. It meant so much to me and my family to know that the sound of our voices was bringing them so much joy. As I move into this next phase of college life, I am so grateful that I have family who believes in me and has taught me to believe in myself at all times. My family has had a huge impact on my life and have motivated me to continually strive for success.

Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author s principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available The Manhattan Family Guide to Private Schools and Selective Public Schools Victoria Goldman,2010-06 The only comprehensive guide to New York City private schools on the market Rev Your Wife's Engine Cathy Goekler,2013-09 Learn how to have a great marriage as easily as you learned to maintain a vehicle Remembering to fill the tank and check the oil means you already have some of the necessary skills to maintain a great marriage Rev Your Wife s Engine helps you turn one success into another Easy steps in each chapter customize this manual to your wife Be the hero and get relationship right without having to pour through touchy feely stuff Rev Your Wife s Engine is divided into three easy sections introduction routine maintenance and tune ups just like a vehicle manual A book for both men and women Rev Your Wife s Engine also helps women communicate in a language men understand And understanding each other means you spend less time stalled alongside the road and more time going places Neoliberalism and Race Lars Cornelissen,2025-10-14 Lars Cornelissen argues that the category of race constitutes an organizing principle of neoliberal ideology Using the methods of intellectual history and drawing on insights from critical race studies Cornelissen explores the various racial constructs that structure neoliberal ideology some of which are explicit while others are more coded Beginning in the interwar period and running through to recent developments Neoliberalism and Race shows that racial themes have always pervaded neoliberal thinking The book s key argument is that neoliberal thought is constitutively racialized its racial motifs cannot be extracted from neoliberalism without rendering it theoretically and politically incoherent The book aptly explores a wide variety of racial constructs through the structure of neoliberal ideology deconstructing the conceptualizations in the works of landmark thinkers such as Ludwig von Mises Friedrich Hayek Peter Bauer Thomas Sowell Charles Murray and others from the early twentieth century to the present In this original perhaps controversial critique Cornelissen asserts that neoliberal thinkers were not just the passive recipients of racial discourse but also directly impacted it Luminous Lives Thomas Schlessler,2023-07-04 Long neglected by art historians Anna Eva Bergman 1909-87 was a painter of major importance who invested her work with an almost mystical ambition The story of her life told for the first time in this meticulously researched biography is extraordinary a Norwegian childhood that was constantly overshadowed by fear a bohemian and adventurous youth that spanned much of Europe a career as an illustrator encounters in Nazi Germany increasingly severe health problems three marriages two of which were to the same man Bergman s fellow artist Hans Hartung and a tragic end in the splendour of their villa in Antibes But above all Bergman s was a life dedicated to creation often in defiance of fashion Only recently has the scale of her achievement begun to be adequately acknowledged Bergman undoubtedly enjoyed a distinguished career crossing paths with such key artists as Wassily Kandinsky Pierre Soulages and Mark Rothko In many respects however she remained a marginal figure little known in her homeland and championed by only a handful of allies in France and the rest of Europe Characterised by the use of gold and silver leaf and by the remarkable rhythm of her lines Bergman's paintings are hieratic and simplified radical evocations of the great structuring forces of the universe minerals the elements and even time itself Thomas Schlessers biography which draws upon the considerable body of written material that Bergman left behind at long last enables us to understand the creator of these magnificent works in all the complexity of her character and the dramatic circumstances of her life

Is Inheritance Legitimate? Guido Erreygers, Toon Vandevelde, 2013-03-09 The debate on inheritance and inheritance taxation has always been linked with the efficiency versus equity issue Some consider inheritance taxes as highly appropriate means to bring forth more economic equality especially equality in starting conditions Others openly doubt the effectiveness of inheritance taxes in this domain and point out that the negative effects may outweigh the positive Some go as far as to say that high inheritance taxes threaten fundamental ethical values and should therefore be abolished In this book both economists and philosophers try to disentangle these and related theoretical issues It gives an overview of what economists and philosophers have to say on the matter and confronts and discusses two radically opposed reform proposals Consuming Religion

The Rise of Common-Sense Conservatism Antti Lepistö, 2021-04-20 In the years following the election of Donald Trump a victory that hinged on the votes of white Midwesterners who were both geographically and culturally distant from the media's coastal concentrations there has been a flurry of investigation into the politics of the so called common man The notion that the salt of the earth purity implied by this appellation is best understood by conservative politicians is no recent development though As Antti Lepistö shows in his timely and erudite book the intellectual wellsprings of conservative common sense discourse are both older and more transnational than has been thought In considering the luminaries of American neoconservative thought among them Irving Kristol Gertrude Himmelfarb James Q Wilson and Francis Fukuyama Lepistö argues that the centrality of their conception of the common man accounts for the enduring power and influence of their thought Intriguingly Lepistö locates the roots of this conception in the eighteenth century Scottish Enlightenment revealing how leading neoconservatives weaponized the ideas of Adam Smith Thomas Reid and David Hume to denounce postwar liberal elites educational authorities and social reformers Their reconfiguration of Scottish Enlightenment ideas ultimately gave rise to a defining force in modern conservative politics the common sense of the common man Whether twenty first century politicians who invoke the grievances of the people are conscious of this unusual lineage or not Lepistö explains both the persistence of the trope and the complicity of some conservative thinkers with the Trump regime Realities and Fantasies of German Female Leadership Elisabeth

Krimmer, 2019 The Western tradition of excluding women from leadership and disparaging their ability to lead has persisted for centuries not least in Germany Even today resistance to women holding power is embedded in literary cultural and historical values that presume a fundamental opposition between the adjective female and the substantive leader Women who do achieve positions of leadership are faced with a panoply of prejudicial misconceptions either considered incapable of leadership conceived of as alpha male behavior or pigeonholed as suited only to particular forms of leadership nurturing cooperative egalitarian communicative etc Focusing on the German speaking countries this volume works to dismantle the prevailing disassociation of women and leadership across a range of disciplines Contributions discuss literary works involving women's political authority and cultivation of community from Maria Antonia of Saxony to Elfriede Jelinek women's social activism as embodied by figures from Hedwig Dohm to Rosa Luxemburg women in political film environmentalism neoliberalism and the media from Leni Riefenstahl to Petra Kelly to Maren Ade and political leaders Hillary Clinton and Angela Merkel The essays achieve a deeper understanding of the historical roots and theoretical assumptions that inform ideas and realities of German female leadership CONTRIBUTORS Dorothee Beck Seth Berk Friederike Brühfener Margaretmary Daley Aude Defurne Helga Druxes Sarah Vandegrift Eldridge Anke Gilleir Rachel J Halverson Peter Hudis Elisabeth Krimmer Stephen Milder Joyce Marie Mushaben Lauren Nossett Patricia Anne Simpson Almut Spalding Inge Stephan Lisa Fetheringill Zwicker ELISABETH KRIMMER is Professor of German at the University of California Davis PATRICIA ANNE SIMPSON is Professor of German and Chairperson of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at the University of Nebraska Lincoln English as a foreign language teacher education Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo, 2014-02-01 The field of Second Language Teacher Education SLTE is mainly concerned with the professional preparation of L2 teachers In order to improve teaching in the multilingual and multicultural classroom of the 21st century both pre and in service L2 teachers as well as L2 teacher educators must be prepared to meet the new challenges of education under the current circumstances expanding their roles and responsibilities so as to face the new complex realities of language instruction This volume explores a number of key dimensions of EFL teacher education The sixteen chapters discuss a wide variety of issues related to second language pedagogy and SLTE Topics discussed include the importance of SLA research competency based teacher education approach classroom based action research SLTE models the value and role of practicum experience abroad the models of pronunciation teaching multicultural awareness and competence the influence of teachers cognitions emotions and attitudes on their emerging and changing professional identities the potential of classroom materials and technology and CLIL and ESP teacher education English as a foreign language teacher education Current perspectives and challenges will be of interest to teachers in training teachers teacher educators and to those educational researchers interested in how L2 teaching is actually learned in professional preparation programmes Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo is Associate Professor of EFL Teacher Education at the University of Extremadura Spain His current
