Side Saddle Victorian Passions English Edition:

Reinventing King Arthur Inga Bryden, 2016-12-05 In her systematic reassessment of the remaking of the Arthurian past in nineteenth century British fiction and non fiction Inga Bryden examines the Victorian Arthurian revival as a cultural phenomenon offering insights into the relationship between social cultural religious and ethnographic debates of the period and a wide range of texts Throughout she adopts an intertextual and historical perspective informed by poststructuralist thinking to reveal nineteenth century attitudes towards the past Starting with a review of the historical evidence available to Victorian writers and an examination of how historians of the time represented Arthur the author connects Victorian accounts of Arthur s quest to contemporary scientific and historical searches for origins and knowledge and to his appropriation by competing religious movements She shows how writers explored the dynamics of heroism by recruiting Arthur and his knights to define codes of chivalric service and to personify the psychological complexities of love Finally the legend of his death and transportation to Avalon is deconstructed and placed in the context of cultural attitudes towards commemorating the dead and theological debates about the afterlife Inga Bryden engages not only with well known Arthurian texts by Tennyson Swinburne Morris and Rossetti but with lesser known works by Bulwer Lytton Robert Stephen Hawker Sebastian Evans Diana Maria Mulock Christiana Douglas and Joseph Shorthouse Twenty-First-Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing Samia Ounoughi, Emmanuelle Peraldo, Anne-Florence Quaireau, 2025-03-11 Twenty First Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing evidences the evolution of travel writing studies over the last two decades and points to innovative ways to study this heterogeneous genre This volume seeks to build bridges between the study of travel writing and disciplines of sciences and human sciences so that the analyses of travel texts images and objects lead to interdisciplinary enrichment This volume revisits the complicated relationship between fact and fiction science and literature and the world and the word through transdisciplinary approaches Through case studies of British travel writing from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries the contributors provide illustrations of the fruitful intersection of travel writing studies with other methodologies such as literary studies gender studies postcolonial studies visual studies areal studies engineering studies food studies animal studies ecocriticism posthumanism and geocriticism Londoners Robert Hallmann, 2015-08-15 Captures the many personalities of the city and beautiful moments from its diverse history in this collection of stunning vintage street photography The British in India David Gilmour, 2025-06-25 An immersive portrait of the lives of the British in India from the seventeenth century to Independence Who of the British went to India and why We know about Kipling and Forster Orwell and Scott but what of the youthful forestry official the enterprising boxwallah the fervid missionary What motivated them to travel halfway around the globe what lives did they lead when they got there and what did they think about it all Full of spirited illuminating anecdotes drawn from long forgotten memoirs correspondence and government documents The British in India weaves a rich tapestry of the everyday experiences of the Britons who found themselves in the jewel in the crown of the British Empire David Gilmour captures the substance and texture of their work home and social lives and illustrates how these transformed across the several centuries of British presence and rule in the subcontinent from the East India Company's first trading station in 1615 to the twilight of the Raj and Partition and Independence in 1947 He takes us through remote hill stations bustling coastal ports opulent palaces regimented cantonments and dense jungles revealing the country as seen through British eyes and wittily reveling in all the particular concerns and contradictions that were a consequence of that limited perspective The British in India is a breathtaking accomplishment a vivid and balanced history written with brio elegance and erudition Casey Stoner: Pushing the Limits

Bazaar Exchange and Mart, and Journal of the Household, 1890 Kew Gardens William Jackson Hooker, 2013-09-05 A single volume reissue of two 1858 guides to the Royal Botanic Gardens at Kew by their first full time director Kew Gardens; Or A Popular Guide to the Royal Botanic Gardens of Kew Sir William Jackson Hooker, 1858

Empowered Ladies Susan Marg, 2024-04-26 Empowerment doesn't always follow a fairy tale script Neither its beginnings nor its journeys are always paved with acceptance Women who dared to don trousers lived with the tremor of discovery particularly those who veiled themselves as men to enlist in early wars when only men were permitted to serve Their fear was not just the battle cries but the disgrace of being unmasked and sent home The world paused in disbelief when upon the death of jazz musician Billy Tipton it was revealed that he was a she Similarly when Dr James Barry who ascended to the zenith of medical ranks in the British Army was uncovered as a woman posthumously the army swathed the truth in secrecy

Not all were ladies in the conventional sense but they were undeniably women who defied the societal mold. They sometimes cloaked themselves in trousers or other male disguises challenging the expectations of their eras. Their ranks encompassed saints and sinners, queens, countesses, and commoners. While names like Joan of Arc and Calamity Jane might ring familiar, their tales along with those of others are captivating. In Empowered Ladies, this book unearths the narratives of these audacious women weaving a tapestry of resilience and defiance that continues to inspire the quest for empowerment.

The Publisher, 1906 The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1928 Brave British soldiers and the Victoria Cross Various, 2022-06-03 In Brave British Soldiers and the Victoria Cross, various authors compile an anthology of valorous deeds achieved by Britain's military servicemen honored with the Victoria Cross. This book serves not only as a historical account but also as a mosaic of gallantry narratives woven together in a literary tapestry that underscores the continuum between youthful bravery and the resolve needed in the fullness of manhood. The literary execution is poignant, capturing the idiosyncrasies of martial sacrifice with a narrative style that conveys the profound respect deserved by those who acted beyond the call of duty within the rich context of military history and honor. The contributing authors led and curated by Samuel Orchart Beeton imbue the work with experiences and perspectives forged from diverse backgrounds. Their collective endeavor is influenced by a shared vision of valor and an understanding of the profound impact recognition such as the Victoria Cross can have on individual lives and national spirit. Beeton's role in synthesizing these accounts reflects a deep commitment to upholding the virtues of courage and steadfastness both as a testament to the past and as an immortal beacon for future generations. Read Brave British Soldiers and the Victoria Cross is an encouragement, an invitation to every citizen to ponder the gravity and glory of the devotion to one's nation. It serves as an exemplar for the values of bravery and loyalty that extend far beyond geographic confines. For scholars, history enthusiasts, and patriots alike, this compendium of courage is not only a reminder of the price of freedom but also a source of inspiration instilling a sense of pride in the shared legacy of national heroes.

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1929 Amazing Traveler, Isabella Bird Evelyn Kaye, 1994 Award-winning biography of 19th adventurer Isabella Bird who visited Colorado, Hawaii, and Australia and gallivanted around Japan, China, Korea, Russia, and Tibet, writing best-selling books about her travels. She was the first woman Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, was given an award by the King of Hawaii, and was presented to Queen Victoria.
