Shaban,2018-01-10 The fast consolidating identities along religious and ethnic lines in recent years have considerably minoritised Muslims in India The wide ranging essays in this volume focus on the intensified exclusionary practices against Indian Muslims highlighting how amidst a politics of violence confusing policy frameworks on caste and class lines and institutionalised riot systems the community has also suffered from the lack of leadership from within At the same time Indian Muslims have emerged as a mass around which the politics of vote bank appeasement foreigners Pakistanis within the country and so on are innovated and played upon making them further apprehensive about asserting their legitimate right to development The important issues of the double marginalisation of Muslim women and attempts to reform the Muslim
