The West dominated the global political order at the beginning of the 20th century, but both land-based and maritime empires gave way to new states by the century's end.

The older, land-based Ottoman, Russian, and Qing empires collapsed due to a combination of internal and external factors. These changes in Russia eventually led to communist revolution.

 -young turks: overthrew the government and implemented democratic reforms such as parliamentary system

2. Describe the factors that led to the collapse of the Russian Empire.

 -were not well equipped when WWI broke out to fight strong states such as Germany which led to food shortages, massive casualties, poor weapons uniforms etc.
 -Revolution in Russia occurred due to food shortages etc., after fall of Nicholas II in 1917, massive chaos ensued-many different groups promoting their agendas and seeking power, provided opening for more radical groups such as the Bolsheviks led by Vladimir
