

Fourth Edition

RHETORICAL CRITICISM

Tens of thousands of students at more than 300 colleges and universities have learned the exciting art of rhetorical criticism from previous editions of this exceptionally accessible text.

Understanding the processes of rhetorical criticism—the systematic investigation and explanation of symbolic acts and artifacts—creates opportunities for more effective communication. When we are aware of the various options available in the construction of messages and how they function to produce effects, we have the tools needed to question the messages in artifacts rather than responding uncritically.

Sonja Foss, who has an enviable talent for synthesizing complex rhetorical concepts and processes into clear explanations, presents nine methods of rhetorical criticism. She carefully explains and illustrates the theory behind each method with abundant examples of applications. Interesting and lively essays, some written by students, encourage readers to develop their critical skills. Useful bibliographies list additional samples for each type of criticism.

Rhetorical criticism is not a process confined to a few assignments in a rhetorical or media criticism course. It is an everyday activity we can use to understand our responses to symbols of all kinds and to create our own symbols to generate the responses we desire.

Rhetorical Criticism Jim A. Kuypers, 2009-07-16 Covering a broad range of rhetorical perspectives Rhetorical Criticism Perspectives in Action presents a thorough accessible and well grounded introduction to rhetorical criticism Throughout the text sample essays written by noted experts provide students with models for writing their own criticism In addition to covering traditional modes of rhetorical criticism the volume presents less commonly discussed rhetorical perspectives for example close textual analysis mythic criticism framing analysis ideographic criticism concept oriented criticism and critical rhetoric exposing student to a wide range of material Featuring nineteen chapters all written by leading rhetoric scholars the volume offers the most comprehensive introduction to rhetorical criticism available Features The chapters are written by a nationally recognized scholar in that area giving students the best and most current research for each perspective Each chapter includes an original sample essay that gives students a model of rhetorical criticism for their own assignments Each author comments on his or her writing process to demonstrate the personal nature of criticism This unique emphasis allows students to appreciate that writing criticism is not a simple formulaic process Every chapter features a Potentials and Pitfalls section that highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the rhetorical perspective being discussed

Rhetorics in the New Millennium James D. Hester, 2010-06-10 Some of the most renowned modern practitioners of New Testament rhetorical criticism including Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Wilhelm Wuellner and the editors themselves provide new rhetorical readings of New Testament texts Organized into three distinct sections Rhetorics in the New Millennium provides a cutting edge approach to this thorny issue in biblical studies The first section is a collection of three essays that are primarily theoretical in nature and concerned with examining general theories of rhetoric The second section is a series of specific studies each using a different accepted theoretical model to analyze a given text The final section presents valuable appendices which summarize information about the content of certain theoretical models of criticism Finally a bibliography listing a wide variety of rhetorical critical studies and reference works is included

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow, 2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education By redesigning writing workshops and MFA PhD programs through craft consciousness new potentials and collaborations emerge and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic inclusive relationships between writers scientists and other artists

Changing Conceptions, Changing Practices Angela Glotfelter, Caitlin Martin, Mandy Olejnik, Ann Updike, Elizabeth Wardle, 2022-12-28 Changing Conceptions Changing Practices demonstrates that it is possible for groups of faculty members to change teaching and learning in radical ways across their programs despite the current emphasis on efficiency and accountability Relating the experiences of faculty from disciplines as diverse as art history economics psychology and philosophy this book offers a theory and research based heuristic for helping faculty transform their courses and programs as well as practical examples of the heuristic in action The authors draw on the threshold concepts framework research in writing studies and theories of learning leadership and change to deftly explore why faculty are often stymied in their efforts to design meaningful curricula for deep learning and how carefully scaffolded professional development for faculty teams can help make such change possible This book is a powerful demonstration of how faculty members can be empowered when professional development leaders draw on a range of scholarship that is not typically connected In today s climate courses programs and institutions are often assessed by and rewarded for proxy metrics that have little to do with learning with grave consequences for students The stakes have never been higher particularly for public higher education Faculty members need opportunities to work together using their own expertise and to enact meaningful learning opportunities for students Professional developers have an important role to play in such change efforts WAC scholars and practitioners leaders of professional development and centers for teaching excellence program administrators and curriculum committees from all disciplines and faculty innovators from many fields will find not only hope but also a blueprint for action in Changing Conceptions Changing Practices Contributors Juan Carlos Albarr n Jos Amador Annie Dell Aria Kate de Medeiros Keith Fennen Jordan A Fenton Carrie E Hall Elena Jackson Albarr n Erik N Jensen Vrinda Kalia Janice Kinghorn Jennifer Kinney Sheri Leafgren Elaine Maimon Elaine Miller Gaile Pohlhaus Jr Jennifer J Quinn Barbara J Rose Scott Sander Brian D Schultz Ling Shao L James Smart Pepper Stetler

The Preaching of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen Timothy H. Sherwood, 2011-11-01 This rhetorical study seeks to understand how and why Archbishop Fulton J Sheen s preaching was so persuasive to the people of his day Though many associate Sheen with his five years on prime time television in the 1950s it was the decades he spent preaching that wrought a religious tone to the Cold War and led the way in a national renewal of religion

The University of Crisis , 2021-10-18 This book began as a collection of papers presented at a conference entitled The Future Business of Higher Education held at Oxford University The contributions range from those who grapple with the question of what a University should do through those concerned with making Higher Education more efficient to some who were already planning for some technologically inevitable virtual future These disparate leanings led to inevitable conflict and a challenge in editing into book form In compiling and editing the chapters the editor has tried to preserve some of the diversity of opinion presented at Oxford By doing so it is apparent that some individual contributors would find unacceptable much of what others in the book have to say The traditionalists clash with the modernizers the Left with the Right Public with Private and the theorists with the practitioners It is this very divergence of philosophical opinion as to the future of Higher Education that makes this book such an enjoyable and stimulating read
