Postwar Japan as History Andrew Gordon,1993-10-20 Japan s catapult to world economic power has inspired many studies by social scientists but few have looked at the 45 years of postwar Japan through the lens of history The contributors to this book seek to offer such a view As they examine three related themes of postwar history the authors describe an ongoing historical process marked by unexpected changes such as Japan s extraordinary economic growth and unanticipated continuities such as the endurance of conservative rule A provocative set of interpretative essays by eminent scholars this book will appeal to anyone interested in the history of twentieth century Japan and the dilemmas facing Japan today

Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism MarinR. Sullivan,2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama s Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto s Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson s Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys s Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere Overdetermined Ragini Tharoor Srinivasan, 2025-06-17 Why is it so difficult to account for the role of identity in literary studies Why do both writers and scholars of Indian English literature express resistance to India and Indianness What does this reveal about how non Western literatures are read taught and understood Drawing on years of experiences in classrooms and on U S university campuses Ragini Tharoor Srinivasan explores how writers critics teachers and students of Indian English literatures negotiate and resist the categories through which the field is defined ethnic postcolonial and Anglophone Overdetermined considers major contemporary authors who disavow identity even as their works and public personas respond in varied ways to the imperatives of being Indian Chapters examine Bharati Mukherjee s rejection of ethnic Americanness Chetan Bhagat s bad English Amit Chaudhuri s autofictional literary project and Jhumpa Lahiri s decision to write in Italian interspersed with meditations on the iconicity of the theorists Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Homi Bhabha and Edward Said Through an innovative method of accented reading and sharing stories and syllabi from her teaching Srinivasan relates the burdens of representation faced by ethnic and postcolonial writers to the institutional and disciplinary pressures that affect the scholars who study their works Engaging and self reflexive Overdetermined offers new insight into the dynamics that shape contemporary Indian English literature the politics of identity in literary studies and the complexities of teaching minoritized literatures in the West
