

Basketball Bully

I had just started at a new school. At first, I was scared. I didn't know anyone. I wondered if I would make friends. Is the teacher nice? Where is the bathroom? But my first week was great. I made friends right away! There was a group of kids who played basketball, just like me! We played at recess, then said we would meet at the park after school.

My new friends and I were playing at the park when this big kid, Max showed up. He starts making fun of us and tried to steal the ball. The kids told me that his name was Max, and he was the biggest bully in the school. Everyone was afraid of him. We stopped playing and everyone went home. I was sad because I wanted to play with my new friends. At home, I told my mom about Max.

She said, "Brian, you need to stand up to Max. Tell him that you don't like to be called names. Invite him to play with you or tell him to go home." The next day Max showed up at the park. He started to bully us again. I said, "Max, we don't like your unkind words. We're trying to have fun. My name is Brian. Would you like to play with us?" Max looked surprised. He said he would love to play with us. He said he was sorry for being a bully.
