Author and Journalist ,1925 Religion, Children's Literature, and Modernity in Western Europe, 1750-2000 Jan de Maeyer,2005 In this book some 25 scholars focus on the relationship between religion children s literature and modernity in Western Europe since the Enlightenment c 1750 They examine various aspects of the phenomenon of children s literature such as types of texts age of readers position of authors design and illustration The role of religion in giving meaning both in a substantive sense as well as through the institutionalised churches is studied from an interdenominational point of view Judaism Roman Catholicism Protestantism and Anglicanism Finally the contribution of pedagogy and child psychology in the interaction between modernity religion and children s literature is also discussed Various articles give a broad overview of the tensions between aesthetics and ethics and the demand for cultural autonomy in the development of children s literature Children s bibles and missionary stories played an important part in the growing diversification of children's literature as did the publication of illustrated reviews for children. Remarkable differences are highlighted in the involvement of religious societies and institutions, episcopally approved publishing houses and supervisory bodies in the publication, distribution and supervision of children's literature. This volume adopts a comparative approach in exploring the underlying religious, ideological and cultural dimensions of children's literature in modern society. British Children's Literature of the 19th Century Patrick C. Fleming, 2025-02-27

Many beloved classics of children's literature including Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, Peter Pan and The Tale of Peter Rabbit were written at the end of the nineteenth century, an era known as the Golden Age of children's literature. Notable figures like William Godwin, Harriet Martineau, Christina Rossetti and Charles Dickens contributed to children's literature while juvenile periodicals first appeared to young readers during this time. This is the first comprehensive reference work about the Golden Age of children's literature and the emergence of juvenile literature as a major publishing phenomenon. Alphabetical entries include foundational figures like Sarah Trimmer, Maria Edgeworth and Mary Martha Sherwood who helped establish the market for children's literature. New genres for the time like the moral tale, religious fiction, children's poetry, school stories and prolific authors like Hesba Stretton, L. T. Meade and G. A. Henty are also included. Heartwarming Stories of Adventist Pioneers Norma J. Collins, 2005. Perhaps you've heard the stories of the Adventist pioneers. However, these are the stories that are not often told. The stories that bring out the human nature of each one. Heartwarming stories will give you a different perspective. You'll get to know the pioneers. None of them were perfect, but all of them did their best by God's grace to spread the message of Jesus' soon return and the good news of the seventh day Sabbath. You'll laugh, cry and celebrate the God who uses imperfect people to do His work. A Word to the Reader.
