

Short Story: The Chronicles of Harris Burdick

More than 25 years ago, a man named Peter Windover was visited by a stranger who introduced himself as Harris Burdick and who left behind 14 fascinating drawings with equally if not more fascinating captions, promising to return the next day with more illustrations and the stories to match. Mr. Windover never saw him again...

Assignment:

For the past 25 years, the 14 illustrations of Harris Burdick have left readers puzzled. Now, a group of well-known writers has been selected to create short stories for each of Burdick's illustrations. The collection will be published under the title The Chronicles of Harris Burdick.

The selection committee has selected you to join this prestigious group! Your assignment is to select 1 of Burdick's illustrations & craft a short story. Your story should incorporate the elements of a short story you learned about in this unit.

Exposition: My exposition provides the reader with the background information needed to understand the story, including info about the setting & characters.

Rising Action: My rising action provides the major events surrounding the conflict & leads up to the climax.

Climax: My climax provides the turning point of the story.

Falling Action/Resolution: My falling action provides the events after the climax & helps bring the story to its resolution, which provides the outcome of the conflict & ties up loose ends.

Characterization: I develop my main character through the action, description, & dialogue used in my story.

Writing Conventions: I show control of writing conventions. I use correct spelling, punctuation, capitalization, & language.

Evidence of the Writing Process: My work shows that I intentionally went through the stages of the writing process. I made revisions to my work so that my final draft was the best it could be.
