An Anthology of Medieval Love Debate Poetry , 2021-07-26 An accurate elegant rendering of major late medieval texts crucial to our understanding of the courtly tradition and of Chaucer Ideal for classroom use William Calin University of Florida Elegant and graceful translations of the most important authors of the late Middle Ages each work brings a new take on the topic of love A superb resource for students and scholars in comparative literature and medieval studies Wendy Pfeffer University of Louisville This very first anthology of medieval love debate poems comprising five masterpieces of the genre explores the many compelling mysteries raised by the experience of romantic love Some have been translated into modern English for the first time With wit ingenuity and humor these poems suggest intriguing answers to what contemporary inquirers would call questions of gender and sexual politics Who loves better men or women Are men or women more faithful in love Are women obligated to reciprocate the attentions of an ardent male What qualities in a lover do women most desire The contributors provide a foundation for the love debate genre and medieval literary treatments of love as well as pertinent facts of literary history and biographical details about the poets whose work spans more than 100 years The volume features works that have been recognized for centuries as central texts of the medieval tradition Christine de Pizan s Debate of the Two Lovers Alain Chartier s Debate of the Four Ladies Geoffrey Chaucer s The Legend of Good Women and Guillaume de Machaut s Judgment of the King of Bohemia and Judgment of the King of Navarre Each translation is appropriately annotated for student use R Barton Palmer is Calhoun Lemon Professor of Literature at Clemson University Barbara K Altmann is associate professor of French at the University of Oregon

The Son of Clemenceau, A Novel of Modern Love and Life Alexandre Dumas, 2019-12-05 In The Son of Clemenceau A Novel of Modern Love and Life Alexandre Dumas intricately weaves a tapestry of passion ambition and the complexities of human relationships set against a backdrop of societal change in late 19th century France Employing his signature blend of vivid characterizations and dynamic plot developments Dumas crafts a narrative that deftly explores the interplay between personal desires and social expectations The prose is marked by its romantic fervor and keen psychological insight reflecting the author s understanding of the era s tumultuous political and cultural landscape where love often clashes with ambition and moral dilemmas Alexandre Dumas renowned for his historical novels is himself a product of a rich literary lineage and a tumultuous life which informed his work Born to a French nobleman and a Haitian mother his multicultural background imbued him with a unique perspective on themes of identity and belonging This novel marks a foray into contemporary issues of love and life capturing the essence of modernity while retaining Dumas s flair for drama and adventure likely influenced by the shifting social paradigms he witnessed For readers seeking a profound exploration of love interwoven with the societal currents of its time The Son of Clemenceau is a compelling read It not only showcases Dumas s literary prowess but also invites reflections on the enduring nature of desire and the evolution of human relationships making it an essential addition to any literary collection The Exhibitor ,1947 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Servisection

Appletons' Journal of Literature, Science and Art ,1869 The Heart Sutra Osho,2014-09-09 The Heart Sutra originally a very short set of verses was given in privacy It was a message to one of Buddha s close disciples Sariputra and was specifically addressed to him Over time the Heart Sutra became one of Buddhism s core teachings In these ten talks Osho presents the powerful message of these ancient words and brings them to a modern audience one with different minds and needs than the original audiences of Buddha more than 2 500 years ago Osho s message is not about Buddha the historical figure instead he addresses his readers and listeners and encourages them to discover their own inner reality their own buddhahood Like Buddha s Osho s message is about meditation and meditation alone rely only on your meditation and nothing else Osho also speaks on the seven chakras the energy centers of the human body and their corresponding relationships to the physical psychosomatic psychological psychospiritual spiritual spiritual transcendental and transcendental aspects of human growth and consciousness Half in Love With Death Joel Paris,2017-09-25 Half in Love With Death presents a new way for therapists to manage chronically suicidal patients an incredibly challenging task for clinicians and one where an insufficient amount of literature exists to guide professionals Author Joel Paris suggests an approach that defies conventional wisdoms about whether suicide can be predicted or prevented He asserts that managing chronically suicidal patients begins with tolerating suicidality understanding the inner world of patients avoiding repeated hospitalizations and focusing on life situations that maintain suicidal ideas and behaviors Each chapter in the book develops a theoretical perspective based on empirical data and many are illustrated by clinical examples Topics addressed throughout the text include distinctions among various types of suicidality the inner world of the chronically suicidal patient with a particular focus on pain emptiness and hopelessness the relationship between chronic suicidality and personality disorders especially the category of borderline personality the effectiveness of psychotherapy and pharmacotherapy for chronically suicidal patients and the risks of litigation in managing this patient population This volume is a crucially important resource for clinicians who treat chronically suicidal patients as it fills a gap in existing literature and provides enlightened guidelines that stem from a large body of research in the field Ethics, Theoretical and Practical Alexander Stuart Hunter,1900

Too Brief a Treat Truman Capote,2012-05-15 The private letters of Truman Capote lovingly assembled here for the first time by acclaimed Capote biographer Gerald Clarke provide an intimate unvarnished portrait of one of the twentieth century's most colorful and fascinating literary figures Capote was an inveterate letter writer He wrote letters as he spoke emphatically spontaneously and passionately Spanning more than four decades his letters are the closest thing we have to a Capote autobiography showing us the uncannily self possessed naïf who jumped headlong into the post World War II New York literary scene the more mature Capote of the 1950s the Capote of the early 1960s immersed in the research and writing of In Cold Blood and Capote later in life as things seem to be unraveling With cameos by a veritable who's who of twentieth century glitterati Too Brief a Treat shines a spotlight on the life and times of an incomparable American writer

Melancholy, Love, and Time Peter G. Toohey,2010-03-11 Ancient literature features many powerful narratives of madness depression melancholy lovesickness simple boredom and the effects of such psychological states upon individual sufferers Peter Toohey turns his attention to representations of these emotional states in the Classical Hellenistic and especially the Roman imperial periods in a study that illuminates the cultural and aesthetic significance of this emotionally charged literature His probing analysis shows that a shifting representation of these afflicted states and the concomitant sense of isolation from one's social affinities and surroundings manifests a developing sense of the self and self consciousness in the ancient world This book makes important contributions to a variety of disciplines including classical studies comparative literature literary and art history history of medicine history of emotions psychiatry and psychology Peter Toohey is Professor and Department Head of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Calgary Canada
