Shriver A Novel English Edition:

Voices and Silence in the Contemporary Novel in English Vanessa Guignery, 2009-10-02 This volume examines the various processes at work in expressing silence and excessive speech in contemporary novels in English covering the whole spectrum from effusiveness to muteness Even if in the postmodern episteme language is deemed inadequate for speaking the unspeakable contemporary authors still rely on voice as a mode of representation and a performative tool and exploit silence not only as a sign of absence block or withdrawal but also as a token of presence and resistance Logorrhoea and reticence are not necessarily antithetical as compulsive verbosity may work as a smokescreen to sidestep the real issues while silences and gaps may reveal more than they hide By submitting their texts to both expansion and retention hypertrophy and aphasia writers persistently test the limits of language and its ability to make sense of individual and collective stories The present volume analyses the complex poetics of silence and speech in fiction from the 1960 s to the present with special focus on Will Self Graham Swift John Fowles Kazuo Ishiguro Jenny Diski Lionel Shriver Mich le Roberts Margaret Atwood Jonathan Safran Foer Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy Zadie Smith Jamaica Kincaid Ryhaan Shah and J M Coetzee Three-Way Street Jay Howard Geller, Leslie Morris, 2021-03-11 As German Jews emigrated in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and as exiles from Nazi Germany they carried the traditions culture and particular prejudices of their home with them At the same time Germany and Berlin in particular attracted both secular and religious Jewish scholars from eastern Europe They engaged in vital intellectual exchange with German Jewry although their cultural and religious practices differed greatly and they absorbed many cultural practices that they brought back to Warsaw or took with them to New York and Tel Aviv After the Holocaust German Jews and non German Jews educated in Germany were forced to reevaluate their essential relationship with Germany and Germanness as well as their notions of Jewish life outside of Germany Among the first volumes to focus on German Jewish transnationalism this interdisciplinary collection spans the fields of history literature film theater architecture philosophy and theology as it examines the lives of significant emigrants The individuals whose stories are reevaluated include German Jews Ernst Lubitsch David Einhorn and Gershom Scholem the architect Fritz Nathan and filmmaker Helmar Lerski and eastern European Jews David Bergelson Der Nister Jacob Katz Joseph Soloveitchik and Abraham Joshua Heschel figures not normally associated with Germany Three Way Street addresses the gap in the scholarly literature as it opens up critical ways of approaching Jewish culture not only in Germany but also in other locations from the mid nineteenth century to the present Stylistic Manipulation of the Reader in Contemporary Fiction Sandrine Sorlin, 2019-12-12 This book focuses on how readers can be manipulated during their experience of reading fictional texts and how they are incited to perceive process and interpret certain textual patterns Offering fine grained stylistic analysis of diverse genres including crime fiction short stories poetry and novels the book deciphers various linguistic pragmatic and multimodal techniques These are skilfully used by authors to achieve specific effects through a subtle manipulation of deixis metalepsis dialogue

metaphors endings inferences or rhetorical narratorial and typographical control Exploring contemporary texts such as The French Lieutenant's Woman The Remains of the Day and We Need to Talk About Kevin chapters delve into how readers are pragmatically positioned or cognitively misdirected as the author guides their attention and influences their judgment They also show how readers responses can conversely bring about a certain form of manipulation as readers challenge the positions the texts invite them to occupy

Prizing Debate Anna Auguscik,2017-06-15 This book offers a study of the literary marketplace in the early 2000s Focusing on the Man Booker Prize and its impact on a novel's media attention Anna Auguscik analyses the mechanisms by which the Prize both recognises books that trigger debates and itself becomes the object of such debates Based on case studies of six novels by Aravind Adiga Margaret Atwood Sebastian Barry Mark Haddon DBC Pierre Zadie Smith and their attention profiles this work describes the Booker as a problem driven attention generating mechanism the influence of which can only be understood in relation to other participants in literary interaction

Women's Fiction and Post-9/11 Contexts Peter Childs,Claire Colebrook,Sebastian Groes,2014-10-21 9 11 is not simply a date on the calendar but marks a distinct historical threshold ushering in the war on terror various states of emergency a supposed clash of civilizations and the putative legitimization of counter democratic procedures ranging from extraordinary renditions to enhanced interrogation Perhaps no date since Virginia Woolf declared that on or about December 1910 human character changed has marked such a singular point in the perception of time identity and nature Women's writing has always been something of a counter canon offering modes of voice and point of view beyond that of the man of reason This collection of essays explores the two problems of what it means to write as a woman and what it means to write in the twenty first century

A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Latter Half of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone,1897

Critical theory and dystopia Patricia McManus,2022-06-21 Critical theory and dystopia offers a uniquely rich study of dystopian fiction drawing on the insights of critical theory Asking what ideological work these dark imaginings perform the book reconstructs the historical emergence consolidation and transformation of the genre across the twentieth century and into our own ranging from Yevgeny Zamiatin's We 1924 and Aldous Huxley's Brave New World 1932 to Anthony Burgess's A Clockwork Orange 1963 and Suzanne Collins's Hunger Games series 2000s and 2010s In doing so it reveals the political logics opened up or neutered by the successive moments of this dystopian history

Troubled Histories, Troubled Fictions ,2022-05-20 Twentieth century Irish fiction powerfully reflects the intensely political nature of the Irish experience for the last hundred years and earlier The essays in Troubled Histories Troubled Fictions Twentieth Century Anglo Irish Prose focus upon the various ways in which the work of authors otherwise as diverse as James Joyce James Stephens Elizabeth Bowen Molly Keane Eimar O'Duffy Jennifer Johnston William Trevor Julia O Faolain and a number of recent women writers synchronizes with items that are or were high on the agenda of Irish politics Discussion ranges from the political and ideological use to which Joyce puts etymology sex and early Irish history the symbolical importance of the Big House and the politics of sexuality in the immediate post independence period to representations of the recent Troubles The Publishers Weekly, 1877

The Fictional Dimension of the School Shooting Discourse Silke Braselmann, 2019-06-17 Ever since the 1990s school shootings have shocked the public in their brutality their suddenness and their inexplicability While film and literature have played a role in the heated debates about so called copycat crimes the growing body of fictionalizations of school shootings has been neglected thus far However in a discourse in which the boundaries between fiction and reality are increasingly blurred this book shows how fiction shapes and structures challenges and disrupts cultural processes of meaning making Hence for a better understanding of the school shooting phenomenon the relevance of fiction on all levels of discourse construction requires thorough analysis This book therefore develops a new approach to the role of fiction for contemporary forms of excessive violence By combining narrative theory with insights from sociology and other disciplines it provides the means for apprehending and describing the relevance of fiction for contemporary discourses Furthermore it provides exemplary analyses of more specific functions of literary and filmic fictionalizations of school shootings between 2000 and 2016

A Supplement to Allibone's Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors John Foster Kirk, 1891

Demons, Hamlets and Femmes Fatales Jayne Steel, 2007 The book provides a lively discussion of the ways in which popular fiction appropriates the figure of the Provisional IRA activist and the political conflict within the north of Ireland It looks at how authors recreations or transformations of Irish republicanism might reveal self referential images that are ultimately a product of national identity and or gender identity An important focus of the book interrogates British fascination and fixation with the Provisional IRA and its terrors The many novels discussed in this study include Gerald Seymour Harry's Game Campbell Armstrong Jig Bernard MacLaverty Cal Mary Costello Titanic Town Jennifer Johnston Shadows on our Skin Deidre Madden One by One through the Darkness

Black Neo-Victoriana, 2021-11-22 Black Neo Victoriana is the first book length study on contemporary re imaginations of Blackness in the long nineteenth century Located at the intersections of postcolonial studies Black studies and neo Victorian criticism this interdisciplinary collection engages with the global trend to reimagine and rewrite Black Victorian subjectivities that have been continually marginalised in both historical and cultural discourses Contributions cover a range of media from novels and drama to film television and material culture and draw upon cultural formations such as Black fandom Black dandyism or steamfunk The book evidences how neo Victorian studies benefits from reading re imaginations of the long nineteenth century vis vis Black epistemologies which unhinge neo Victorianism's dominant spatial and temporal axes and reroute them to conceive of the neo Victorian through Blackness

Contemporary Women's Post-Apocalyptic Fiction Susan Watkins, 2020-02-29 This book examines how contemporary women novelists have successfully transformed and rewritten the conventions of post apocalyptic fiction Since the dawn of the new millennium there has been an outpouring of writing that depicts the end of the world as we know it and women writers are no exception to this trend However the book argues that their fiction is distinctive Contemporary women s work in this genre avoids conservatism a nostalgic mourning for the past and the focus on restoring what has been lost aspects key to much male authored apocalyptic fiction Instead contemporary women writers show readers the ways in which patriarchy and neo colonialism are intrinsically implicated in the disasters they envision and offer qualified hope for a new beginning for society culture and literature after an imagined apocalyptic event Exploring science nature and matter the posthuman body the maternal imaginary time narrative and history literature and the word and the post secular the book covers a wide variety of writers and addresses issues of nationality race and ethnicity as well as gender and sexuality

Wild Child Naomi Morgenstern, 2018-05-08 Exploring how the figure of the wild child in contemporary fiction grapples with contemporary cultural anxieties about reproductive ethics and the future of humanity In the eighteenth century Western philosophy positioned the figure of the child at the border between untamed nature and rational adulthood Contemporary cultural anxieties about the ethics and politics of reproductive choice and the crisis of parental responsibility have freighted this liminal figure with new meaning in twenty first century narratives In Wild Child Naomi Morgenstern explores depictions of children and their adult caregivers in extreme situations ranging from the violence of slavery and sexual captivity to accidental death mass murder torture and global apocalypse in such works as Toni Morrison s A Mercy Cormac McCarthy s The Road Lionel Shriver s We Need to Talk about Kevin Emma Donoghue s Room and Denis Villeneuve s film Prisoners Morgenstern shows how in such narratives wild children function as symptoms of new ethical crises and existential fears raised by transformations in the technology and politics of reproduction and by increased ethical questions about the very decision to reproduce In the face of an uncertain future that no longer confirms the confidence of patriarchal humanism such narratives displace or project present day apprehensions about maternal sacrifice and paternal protection onto the wildness of children in a series of hyperbolically violent scenes Urgent and engaging Wild Child offers the only extended consideration of how twenty first century fiction has begun to imagine the decision to reproduce and the ethical challenges of posthumanist parenting

Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum s lit popular novel the maternal confessional dads lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres

Publishers' Weekly ,1878 Translation Review ,1998 The Synod of Dort Joel R. Beeke,Martin I.

Klauber,Christopher B. Brown,Günter Frank,Bruce Gordon,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Tarald Rasmussen,Violet Soen,Zsombor Tóth,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,2020-06-08 The Synod of Dort was an international conference of Reformed leaders held in 1618 1619 in the Netherlands It is famous for its so called Five Points of Calvinism which were a refutation of the Five Remonstrances of the followers of Arminius on the nature of divine grace and the perseverance of believers unto eternal salvation As an international Synod Dort made a significant impact on the definition and development of Reformed orthodoxy for decades and centuries to come In countries such as France the Canons of Dort served as a confessional boundary for Reformed orthodoxy and all pastors had to swear allegiance to them Despite its tremendous influence the decisions of the Synod of Dort remain a mystery to many today and are subject to caricatures and stereotypes of an extreme divine determinism and the hijacking of Calvin s pure theology This volume seeks to shed light on various aspects of the Synod of Dort in order to inform the contemporary reader of its proper historical and theological context and its experiential emphases Some leading scholars of post Reformation Reformed thought and the Synod have contributed essays to this work The book is divided into three major sections designed to deliver a better overall perspective on the Synod The first section focuses on the reception of the Canons of Dort among the Reformed churches in France where they were accepted and enforced However there were some internal questions concerns and even objections to the canons which are detailed in these chapters The second section hones in on the theology of the Canons of Dort with particular attention to the doctrines of election and the nature of the atonement This section also includes an important chapter on the relationship between church and state always a central concern in the Reformation and post Reformation eras Finally the third major section looks at how believers could apply the theology to their daily lives and devotion to Christ These chapters indicate that this was not merely a theological conference but one that had practical and experiential implications as well The book concludes with a chapter on the application of the Synod for believers today
