Morning Star Rising Camellia Webb-Gannon, 2021-06-30 That Indonesia's ongoing occupation of West Papua continues to be largely ignored by world governments is one of the great moral and political failures of our time West Papuans have struggled for more than fifty years to find a way through the long night of Indonesian colonization However united in their pursuit of merdeka freedom in its many forms what holds West Papuans together is greater than what divides them Today the Morning Star glimmers on the horizon the supreme symbol of merdeka and a cherished sign of hope for the imminent arrival of peace and justice to West Papua Morning Star Rising The Politics of Decolonization in West Papua is an ethnographically framed account of the long bitter fight for freedom that challenges the dominant international narrative that West Papuans quest for political independence is fractured and futile Camellia Webb Gannon's extensive interviews with the decolonization movement's original architects and its more recent champions shed light on complex diasporic and intergenerational politics as well as social and cultural resurgence In foregrounding West Papuans perspectives the author shows that it is the body politic's unflagging determination and hope rather than military might or influential allies that form the movement's most unifying and powerful force for independence This book examines the many intertwining strands of decolonization in Melanesia Differences in cultural performance and political diversity throughout the region are generating new fruitful trajectories Simultaneously Black and Indigenous solidarity and a shared Melanesian identity have forged a transnational grassroots power base from which the movement is gaining momentum Relevant beyond its West Papua focus this book is essential reading for those interested in Pacific studies Native and Indigenous studies development studies activism and decolonization

Watson-Warecgupe Simiong,2016-04-22 Essence of Success Success is what you are pursuing and it also what everyone in the world is chasing after This is because success is the vehicle that will take you from your current status level dimension and state to a higher one You will only climb higher after you succeed in your current endeavour Without it you will remain a normal man and die to add value to the graveyard You might be thinking right now that success is unreachable for you because everything you try seems to fail But don t you know that a failure or ten failures or even hundred failures are a step away from success it is an indication that success is very close This book is written to show you that success does not happen with a big explosion nor by luck or when you receive a prestigious US scholarship but it is the sum of all the right things that you do to complement what you believe The very fact that you are alive and are living in a free country is indeed a success In fact you have succeeded a million times but did not know it After reading this book you will appreciate that your day to day life is a constant success and all you have to do is appreciate those successes and move on It will cause you to put together all your successes and become a super successful person Working as Indigenous Archaeologists George Nicholas,Joe

Watkins,2024-09-30 Working as Indigenous Archaeologists explores the often contentious relationship between Indigenous and other formerly colonized peoples and Archaeology through their own voices Over the past 35 plus years the once novel field of Indigenous Archaeology has become a relatively familiar part of the archaeological landscape It has been celebrated criticized and analyzed as to its practical and theoretical applications and its political nature No less important are the life stories of its Indigenous practitioners What has brought some of them to become practicing archaeologists or heritage managers What challenges have they faced from both inside and outside their communities And why haven t more pursued Archaeology as a vocation or avocation This volume is a collection of 60 autobiographical chapters by Indigenous archaeologists and heritage specialists from around the world some community based some academic some in other realms who are working to connect past and present in meaningful and especially personal ways As Archaeology continues to evolve there remain strong tensions between an objective science oriented evidentiary based approach to knowing the past and a more subjective relational humanistic approach informed by local values traditional knowledge and holistic perspective While there are no maps for these new territories hearing directly from those Indigenous individuals who have pursued Archaeology reveals the pathways taken Those stories will provide inspiration and confidence for those curious about what lies ahead This is an important volume for anyone interested in the present state and future of the archaeological discipline

Uneven Connections Robert J. Foster, 2024-03-28 In the first years of the 21st century economic liberalisation began to transform telecommunications services throughout the Pacific Islands Government regulators corporate executives and everyday consumers hopefully imagined that opening mobile phone markets to competition would result in greater access lower costs and accelerated development Uneven Connections examines the ways in which liberalisation took hold in Papua New Guinea PNG when a unit of the Caribbean based mobile network operator Digicel Group Ltd seized the opportunity to compete with the state sponsored incumbent The book highlights how mobile phones entered the lives of urban and rural Papua New Guineans after Digicel's arrival in 2007 In so doing it describes a moral economy in which companies consumers and state agents continually negotiate who owes what to whom In what ways have these various actors invented and negotiated new forms of both freedom and constraint Uneven Connections advances understanding of how a so called digital revolution in PNG unfolded resulting in outcomes that often confounded the expectations of policy makers and ordinary citizens alike It assesses the extent to which some of the promises of this revolution have been redeemed and identifies the challenges faced by companies consumers and state agents in establishing and experiencing novel forms of uneven connectivity The book provides a short and selective history of mobile phones in PNG ending with the sale of Digicel's Pacific operations to the Australian company Telstra in 2022
