Pakula Tom Ryan,2024-08-30 Renowned for his masterful storytelling Alan J Pakula 1928 1998 left an indelible mark on cinema history Alan J Pakula Interviews offers a concise yet comprehensive overview of the director s illustrious career from his early days in Hollywood to his rise as a major filmmaker From the famous paranoia trilogy of Klute The Parallax View and All the President s Men to the gripping psychological drama of Sophie s Choice and his often undervalued later work Pakula s diverse filmography has captivated audiences and critics alike The first published collection of interviews with the acclaimed director this volume presents an illuminating portrait of Pakula as a filmmaker an artist and a man of many parts The eighteen pieces compiled here including an illuminating introduction and previously unpublished 1983 interview by editor Tom Ryan provide a broad overview of Pakula s career In his own words Pakula recounts his experience as Robert Mulligan s producer reflects on the bulk of films he made as director and outlines his approach to the art of filmmaking Taken as a whole Alan J Pakula Interviews is a treasure trove of cinematic wisdom and a fitting tribute to the legacy of an important American filmmaker Narratives of Guilt and Innocence Ralph Grunewald,2023-07-11 2023 Co Winner of the Herbert Jacob Book Prize given by the Law and Society Association Illustrates how the power of narrative influences how police prosecutors juries and judges construct legal reality Wrongful convictions have been studied primarily through the lenses of law psychology and the social sciences Though scholarship has established canonical factors that help explain why the innocent are convicted a very simple question has not been answered How is it possible that prosecutors can convince juries and themselves of the guilt of an innocent defendant often even against strong exculpatory evidence Narratives of Guilt and Innocence seeks to address this crucial question by highlighting the narrative blueprint of a given criminal justice system and then how the power of narrative influences how police prosecutors juries and judges construct legal reality and the evidence for it That law and storytelling are connected is a common trope but we know surprisingly little about the intricate role storytelling plays in criminal cases and wrongful convictions in particular This book questions the effectiveness of the adversarial contest between prosecutor and defense as a means to arrive at the truth and argues that narrative is an important a factor in the construction of legal reality Wrongful convictions exemplify that narrative and truth have an uncomfortable relationship Ralph Grunewald provides a retelling and reading of well known miscarriages of justice including the best known wrongful conviction in Germany Applying a comparative perspective shows that the narrative desire as a human trait has a universal power with a persistence that transcends the regulatory and procedural setup of a given system
