The Sweetest Scent Susan Laine, 2013-09-23 A Senses and Sensations Story Football player Bro Sumner and genderqueer Lacey Adair are an exclusive item Though their high school years have been mostly happy they continually face dangerous opposition including a bully on Bro's team and Lacey's violent alcoholic father because Lacey won't live the traditional gender role she was born to She chooses to wear dresses and makeup and appear female underneath the wrappings she's content with physically being a male in a gay relationship with Bro and she doesn't want that to change Their differing plans for the future after graduation however may create changes they can't weather A compromise with the help of relatives and friends means Bro and Lacey can go to school only an hour apart but they still miss each other It's not long before they make new friendships and discover new romantic possibilities Temptations jealousies distance and expanding horizons could sever their relationship forever unless they can keep their dream of a life together alive in their hearts The Outlook, 1909 observed Mountain Path draws on Harriette Simpson Arnow's experiences as a schoolteacher in downtrodden Pulaski County Kentucky deep in the heart of Appalachia prior to WWII Far from a quaint portrait of rural life Arnow's novel documents hardships poverty illiteracy and struggles She also recognizes a fragile cultural richness one characterized by those who like open fires hounds children human talk and song instead of TV and radio the wisdom of the old who had seen all of life from birth to death and which has since been eroded by the advent of highways and industry In Mountain Path Arnow exquisitely captures the voices faces and ways of a people she cared for deeply and who evoked in her a deep respect and admiration
