Introduction to Teaching Gene E. Hall, Linda F. Quinn, Donna M. Gollnick, 2018-11-29 An ideal introductory text for aspiring teachers Introduction to Teaching Making a Difference in Student Learning is grounded in the realities and complexities found in today s schools Acclaimed authors Gene E Hall Linda F Quinn and Donna M Gollnick thoroughly prepare readers to make a difference as teachers presenting firsthand stories and evidence based practices while offering a student centered approach to learning The authors focus on how to address one of the biggest challenges facing many of today s schools ensuring that all students are learning and help teachers prioritize student learning as their primary focus From true to life challenges that future teachers will face such as high stakes testing reduced funding low retention and Common Core State Standards to the inspiration and joy they will experience throughout their teaching careers the Third Edition paints an importantly authentic picture of the real life of a teacher

Fanon, iek, and the Violence of Resistance Zahi Zalloua, 2025-06-26 In a novel pairing of anti colonial theorist Frantz Fanon with Marxist Lacanian philosopher Slavoj i ek Zahi Zalloua explores the ways both thinkers expose the violence of political structures This inventive exploration advances an anti racist critique describing how ontology operates in a racial matrix to produce some human bodies that count and others deemed not quite or non human that do not For Fanon and i ek the violence of ontology must be met with another form of violence a revolutionary violence that delegitimizes the logic of the symbolic order and troubles its collective fantasies Whereas Fanon begins his challenge to ontology by exposing its historical linkages to Europe s destructive imperialist procedures before proceeding to stretch Marxism along with psychoanalysis to account for the crushing neo colonial situation i ek premises his work on the refusal to accept the totality of ontology Because of these different points of intervention Fanon and i ek together offer a powerful and multifaceted assessment of the liberal anti racist paradigm whose propensity for identity politics and aversion to class struggle silence the cry of the dispossessed and foreclose radical change Avoiding contemporary separatist temptations decoloniality and Afropessimism and breaking with a non violent sentimentalist futurology that announces more of the same Fanon and i ek point in a different direction one that eschews identitarian thought in favor of a collective struggle for freedom and equality

The Oxford Handbook of Ethics of AI Markus D. Dubber, Frank Pasquale, Sunit Das, 2020-06-30 This volume tackles a quickly evolving field of inquiry mapping the existing discourse as part of a general attempt to place current developments in historical context at the same time breaking new ground in taking on novel subjects and pursuing fresh approaches The term AI is used to refer to a broad range of phenomena from machine learning and data mining to artificial general intelligence The recent advent of more sophisticated AI systems which function with partial or full autonomy and are capable of tasks which require learning and intelligence presents difficult ethical questions and has drawn concerns from many quarters about individual and societal welfare democratic decision making moral agency and the prevention of harm This work ranges from explorations of normative constraints on specific applications of machine learning algorithms today in everyday medical practice for instance to reflections on the potential status of AI as a form of consciousness with attendant rights and duties and more generally still on the conceptual terms and frameworks necessarily to understand tasks requiring intelligence whether human or A I

Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia Mariya Y. Omelicheva,2014-12-17 More than two decades after the break up of the Soviet Union Central Asian republics Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan continue to reexamine and debate whom and what they represent Nationalism and Identity Construction in

Central Asia explores the complex and controversial process of identity formation in the region using a 3D framework which stands for Dimensions Dynamics and Directions of nation building The first part of the framework dimensions underscores the new and complex ways in which nationalisms and identities manifest themselves in Central Asia The second part dynamics is premised on the idea that nationalisms and identity construction in the Central Asian republics may indicate some continuities with the past but are more concerned with legitimation of the present power politics in these states It calls for the identification of the main actors strategies tactics interests and reactions to the processes of nationalism and identity construction The third part of the framework directions addresses implications of nationalisms and identity construction in Central Asia for regional and international peace and cooperation Jointly the chapters of the volume address domestic and international level dimensions dynamics and directions of identity formation in Central Asia What unites these works is their shared modern and post modern understanding of nations nationalisms and identities as discursive strategic and tactical formations They are viewed as constructed and imagined and therefore continuously changing but also fragmented and contested
