The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyobokey Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyobokey Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa

Race in the Shadow of Law Eddie Bruce-Jones, 2016-12-01 Race in the Shadow of Law offers a critical legal analysis of European responses to institutional racism It draws connections between contemporary legal knowledge practices and colonial systems of thought arguing that many people of colour experience the law as a part of a racial problem rather than a solution to racial injustice Based on a critical legal ethnography of anti racism work in Europe and with an emphasis on the German context the book positions Black and anti racist perspectives at the centre rather than the margins of critically thinking through the intersection of race and law Combining this ethnography with comparative legal analysis discourse analysis and critical race theory the book develops a critical discussion of the European legal frameworks aimed at regulating racism and particularly institutional racism in policy and policing In linking this critique to the transformative potential of social movements however it goes on to examine the strategic and creative possibility of disrupting conventional modes of engaging and resisting law

The Law of Nations in Global History Charles Henry Alexandrowicz, 2017 The history and theory of international law have been transformed in recent years by post colonial and post imperial critiques of the universalistic claims of Western international law The origins of those critiques lie in the often overlooked work of the remarkable Polish British lawyer historian C H Alexandrowicz 1902-75 This volume collects Alexandrowicz's shorter historical writings on subjects from the law of nations in pre colonial India to the New International Economic Order of the 1970s and presents them as a challenging portrait of early modern and modern world history seen through the lens of the law of nations The book includes the first complete bibliography of Alexandrowicz's writings and the first biographical and critical introduction to his life and works It reveals the formative influence of his Polish roots and early work on canon law for his later scholarship undertaken in Madras 1951-61 and Sydney 1961-67 and the development of his thought regarding sovereignty statehood self determination and legal personality among many other topics still of urgent interest to international lawyers political theorists and global historians

The Acquisition of Africa (1870-1914) Mieke van der Linden, 2016-10-05 Over recent decades the responsibility for the past actions of the European colonial powers in relation to their former colonies has been subject to a lively debate In this book the question of the responsibility under international law of former colonial States is addressed Such a legal responsibility would presuppose the violation of the international law that was applicable at the time of colonization In the Scramble for Africa during the Age of New Imperialism 1870 1914 European States and non State actors mainly used cession and protectorate treaties to acquire territorial sovereignty imperium and property rights over land dominium The question is raised whether Europeans did or did not on a systematic scale breach these treaties in the context of the acquisition of territory and the expansion of empire mainly through extending sovereignty rights and subsequently intervening in the internal affairs of African political entities History of Roman Private Law ...: Regal period Edwin Charles Clark,1919 Scrambles in the Dark Peak Terry Sleaford,Tom Corker,2024-11-25 A guidebook to 41 scrambles in the Peak District National Park Covering the Dark Peak and Roaches areas the routes are graded 1 3 and range from those that are suitable for adventurous walkers to harder routes that require some climbing experience Alongside a route description information on approach link routes variants and extensions is provided allowing the routes to be adapted to suit you 1 25 000 OS maps are included for each route Four winter routes are described including Mam Tor and Black Tor gullies Easy access from Manchester and Sheffield Local points of interest include Kinder Scout and Bleaklow Advice on equipment access and conservation restrictions Conference on Revision of United States Mining Laws United States. Congress. House. Committee on Public Lands. Special Subcommittee,1950 Law's Documents Katherine Biber,Trish Luker,Priya Vaughan,2021-12-29 Illuminating their breadth and diversity this book presents a comprehensive and multidisciplinary view of legal documents and their manifold forms uses materialities and meanings In 1951 Suzanne Briet a librarian at the Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris famously said that an antelope in a zoo could be a document thereby radically changing the way documents were analysed and understood In the fifty years since this pronouncement the digital age has introduced a potentially limitless range of digital and technological forms for the capture and storage of information In their multiplicity and their ubiquity documents pervade our everyday life However the material intellectual aesthetic and political dimensions and effects of documents remain difficult to pin down Taking a multidisciplinary and international approach this collection tackles the question what is a legal document in order to explore the material aesthetic and intellectual attributes of legal documentation the political and colonial orders reflected and embedded in documents and the legal archival and social systems which order and utilise information As well as scholars in law documentary theory history Indigenous studies art history and design theory and practice this book will also appeal to those working in libraries archives galleries and museums for whom the ongoing challenges of documentation in the digital age are urgent and timely questions Law and Colonial Cultures Lauren Benton,2002 Advances an interesting perspective in world history arguing that institutions and culture and not just the global economy serve as important elements of international order Focusing on colonial legal politics and the interrelation of local and indigenous cultural contests and institutional change the book uses case studies to trace a shift in plural legal orders from the multicentric law of early empires to the state centered law of the colonial and postcolonial world In the early modern world the special legal status of cultural and religious others itself became an element of continuity across culturally diverse empires In the nineteenth century the state's assertion of a singular legal authority responded to repetitive legal conflicts not simply to the imposition of Western models of governance Indigenous subjects across time and in all settings were active in making changing and interpreting the law and by extension in shaping the international order

United Nations Peacekeeping and the Principle of Non-Intervention Jennifer Giblin, 2024-03-26 Using a unique application of Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL this book provides a critical interdisciplinary examination of the contemporary practice of UN peacekeeping Is peacekeeping intervention Since its conception in the mid 1950s peacekeeping has significantly evolved from traditional lightly armed passive operations to robust multi dimensional stabilisation peacekeeping operations This raises questions as to whether this is simply a natural evolution of peacekeeping or whether it marks an expansion of the concept beyond its boundaries pushing it into the realm of peace enforcement or intervention In response this book examines the frameworks which govern UN peacekeeping and seeks to understand the relationship between peacekeeping and the principle of non intervention Providing practical examples from the United Nations operations in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and drawing upon interviews with key international actors including UN personnel the book explores the boundaries of peacekeeping contending that peacekeeping at times becomes a form of intervention This the book argues is detrimental both to the concept of peacekeeping and to the host state and it concludes by offering a series of recommendations to re affirm peacekeeping's boundaries and amplify the effectiveness of contemporary peacekeeping This book will be of interest to scholars and students in international law international relations politics history and criminology Cycle World Magazine ,2003-01

Cumulative Digest of United States Practice in International Law ,1946 Decolonisation and Legal Knowledge Folúké Adébísí, 2024-04-09 The law is heavily implicated in creating maintaining and reproducing racialised hierarchies which bring about and preserve acute global disparities and injustices This essential book provides an examination of the meanings of decolonisation and explores how this examination can inform teaching researching and practising of law It explores the ways in which the foundations of law are entangled in colonial thought and in its re production of ideas of commodification of bodies and space time Thus it is an exploration of the ways in which we can use theories and praxes of decolonisation to produce legal knowledge for flourishing futures Conference on Revision of U.S. Mining Laws. Hearings ... Pursuant to H.Res. 66. Oct. 17-18, 1949

United States. Congress. House. Public lands, 1950 The Subjects of Ottoman International Law Lâle Can, Michael Christopher Low, Kent F. Schull, Robert Zens, 2020-10-13 The core of this edited volume originates from a special issue of the Journal of the Ottoman and Turkish Studies Association JOTSA that goes well beyond the special issue to incorporate the stimulating discussions and insights of two Middle East Studies Association conference roundtables and the important work of additional scholars in order to create a state of the field volume on Ottoman sociolegal studies particularly regarding Ottoman international law from the eighteenth century to the end of the empire It makes several important contributions to Ottoman and Turkish studies namely by introducing these disciplines to the broader fields of trans imperial studies comparative international law and legal history Combining the best practices of diplomatic history and history from below to integrate the Ottoman Empire and its subjects into the broader debates of the nineteenth century trans imperial history this unique volume represents the exciting work and cutting edge scholarship on these topics that will continue to shape the field in years to come Essays in African Land Law Robert Home (College teacher),2011 Scrambling for Protection
